SEEK IDENTITY OF SLAIN GIRL

SEEK HEAD OF SLAIN WOMAN

Police Hope to Identify Armless and Legless Body Found in Hudson River

New York, Aug. 19.—How did the woman whose headless, armless, legless and mutilated body was washed up by the Hudson River come to her death, and who was responsible?

These are the questions which Jersey City police and officials of Hudson County are trying to solve today.

Dr. Arthur Haskins, Hudson County, New Jersey, physician, planned an autopsy to determine whether poison had been administered prior to death.

Meanwhile, river men and police were dragging the stream in an attempt to find the young woman's head and missing limbs.

Dr. Haskins discredited the theory that the torso was the remains of a cadaver from a medical school, because the limbs were cut off in such a manner as to show the amputations to be the work of an amateur.

The body had been in the water six weeks, it was estimated. Attached to the torso were pieces of heavy wrapping twine, under which hung a few strands of wool, showing the body had been wrapped in a woolen garment or a blanket.

It was possible, the police said, the body had been weighted and the action of water parted the twine, allowing the torso to come to the surface. It was evident the body had not been floating long.

Dr. Haskins said he believed the woman was between twenty and thirty years old, weighed about 130 pounds and was five feet four inches tall.

SAYS STRIKERS HAVE VIOLATED AGREEMENT

Isidor Fleischer, chairman of the Chelsea Bag and Burlap Dealers' Association, has issued a statement regarding the strike which has been going on in Chelsea the past seven weeks, in which he says:

"On July 2, 1919, the association contracted with the burlap workers for one year ending July 2, 1920. They have broken this contract at two different times and called two unnecessary strikes during that time, breaking their agreement. Under these conditions we do not feel justified in contracting with men who cannot be depended upon."

Acting Chief Francis McCarthy of the Chelsea police has detailed several men to the strike district to be on the lookout for trouble.

DOCTOR CRUSHED TO DEATH UNDER AUTO

Northampton, Aug. 19.—Dr. J. H. Gelineau of Easthampton was killed here when his auto caught in the Main street trolley tracks, skidded and crashed into a telephone pole. The physician was caught under the car and crushed to death.

Dr. Gelineau was forty years old and one of the best known physicians in this section.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOOTS HIMSELF IN HAND

John Jonsolnugno, twenty years old, of No. 28 Shepard street, Brighton, today accidentally shot himself with a revolver in the left hand in the wash room of the Quincy House. He was taken to the Relief Station where it was found that two bones in his hand were crushed.

RUSSIANS HURLED BACK

Poles Gains 25 to 50 Miles on Wide Front and Save Warsaw

London, Aug. 19.—A Central News dispatch reports that the Russians are evacuating Vilna on the Lithuanian-Polish frontier, but are concentrating on Grodno, southwest of Vilna. Vilna is about 240 miles northeast of Warsaw.

By International News Service.

Warsaw, via Poland, Aug. 19.—The Russian army of invasion in Poland has been thrown back from twenty-five to fifty miles by the Poles in the great triple offensive that has been launched by General Pilsudski over a wide front, the Polish War Office announced today.

The communique says:

"Three Polish offensives are progressing against the Reds. The Polish forces under General Pilsudski have driven in the enemy lines between the Wieprz and Narew rivers to a depth of twenty-five to fifty miles. We have reached Parovoff.

"In the region of Novo Georgievsk we have cleared the right bank (of the Vistula River).

"On the lower Narew River the forts at the confluence of the Narew and Bug Rivers were retaken from

DOG PERISHES IN FIRE AFTER SAVING FAMILY

Milford, Aug. 19.—A cottage owned by Angelo Moschatelli was destroyed by fire today. The members of the family were aroused by a terrier dog and one of the girls owes her life to the dog's barking. She had her hair scorched and was somewhat burned about the neck. After waking the family the dog was unable to get out and was suffocated.

'Antis' Plan Suit to Block Suffrage

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 19.—"Watchful waiting" became the policy of the suffragists today as they prepared to counteract any move opposition forces might make to reverse the action of the Tennessee Legislature in ratifying the suffrage amendment.

With a motion for reconsideration before the House there is no lessening of the intensity of the struggle.

Precedent will be set aside if the motion to call up the amendment for reconsideration is acted upon formally. No measure once passed by the Tennessee Legislature ever has been successfully called up for reconsideration.

Legal steps already are being taken to prevent the Secretary of State for Tennessee from certifying to Secretary Colby the fact of ratification. Judge Joseph Higgins, president of the Tennessee Constitutional League, has prepared papers in a suit which will be filed in the State courts should the antis fail to block suffrage by reconsideration.

Charges of bribery of a member of the House by suffrage forces were made today by opposition leaders, and

Stork Visits Family 6 Times in 3 Hours

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 19.—Six children were born in the family of Buck Jones within three hours. An hour after his wife, who is forty-two years old, gave birth to triplets, Mrs. Willie Jones, a daughter-in-law, had twins. In the meantime, Mrs. Asiah Parks, a daughter, had been called in to take care of the two mothers. Within less than an hour she, too, had become a mother.

FUGITIVE STOWAWAY CAUGHT IN FALL RIVER

Fall River, Aug. 19.—Joao de Cunha, one of the 28 Portuguese stowaways who escaped from a heavy guard after their arrival in this city, was taken into custody by the local police and will be deported to Portugal. Police in several other cities are searching the Portuguese colonies in an attempt to apprehend the other escaped stowaways.

OIL STOCK HEAD HELD AS FRAUD

Postal Officials Claim G. L. Ware of Brookline Used Mails to Promote Swindle

Charged with employing the mails to defraud by using them to advertise an oil stock scheme, George L. Ware of Clinton road, Brookline, head of the investment firm of George L. Ware and Company, No. 55 Congress street, was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Hayes today.

Ware was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Bernard Bradley at the request of postal authorities and furnished bonds of $5,000 for his appearance in court.

Postoffice Inspector Byron Hall, who obtained the warrant for Ware's arrest, charges that the defendant had advertised in Boston newspapers, an oil stock known as the Mutual Divide, the advertisements claiming that Ware's company owned and controlled large tracts of valuable land in Texas. It is charged this alleged statement of the company was false.

According to the complaint, Ware, from "the first day of last December and up to the time of the issuing of the warrant, devised a scheme and artifice to defraud divers persons in that he should fraudulently represent and pretend by means of circular letters and literature circulated through the mails, that the Mutual Divide of Massachusetts Trustees had been producing high-grade oil in quantities sufficient to pay dividends in cash on each share of stock of the Mutual Divide."

The complaint further charges "that this association had no such property and that it would not and could not pay dividends on each share of stock of the Mutual Divide."

The specific charge against Ware alleges that he used the mails unlawfully in sending one of these circulars to John C. McTighe, in New York City.

BANK PAYS $100,000 IN RUN

First State Crowded With Depositors; Announces It Will Meet All

The run on the First State Bank, No. 107 Salem street, North End, was met today by every officer, stenographer and clerk being pressed into duty as paying tellers.

President Thomas Nuttle said that more than $100,000 had been paid out in a few hours and that the bank had sufficient cash on hand to meet every liability.

The "run" began Wednesday.

Little excitement attended the demands of the depositors for their money. The small building was crowded with the lines of depositors which at times had an aggregate of 400 persons. All credits, including Christmas savings and vacation funds, were paid upon demand.

The last statement of the bank, made on May 4, 1920, listed liabilities as $1,571,610.96; capital stock, $200,000 and surplus, $25,000.

The run was caused, according to the bank officials, by a false report regarding the bank's condition.

SLAVIN, INJURED IN FIGHT, FAILS STEADILY

New York, Aug. 19.—The condition of John C. Slavin, actor, who was injured in front of John J. McGraw's home after taking the baseball man home from the Lambs' Club, was announced as poor today at St. Luke's Hospital. He has been growing worse for several days. McGraw has announced himself ready to answer the prohibition commissioner regarding transactions in liquor alleged by McGraw to have been made at the club previous to his fight with William H. Boyd.

Theatre Gift 'Was Tea,' Says Hammerstein

New York, Aug. 19.—"It was tea," Arthur Hammerstein, the theatrical producer declared today.

"Well, you will have to show me," declared Prohibition Enforcement Commissioner Shevlin. It all happened at the Selwyn Theatre Tuesday night when chorus girls after singing "I've Got Something" circulated among the audiences at the premier of "Tickle Me" and distributed small bottles inscribed "Tickle Me, Carstairs."

Carstairs is the name of an almost forgotten brew of hitherto wide fame, Mr. Hammerstein said he thought it was tea, but has made no affidavit to this effect yet.

FIND MORE OLD COLONY FUNDS

Atty.-Gen. Locates $15,000 in New York Bank; Puts Assets at $150,000

Fifteen thousand dollars was found today on deposit in a New York bank, in the name of the Old Colony Foreign Exchange Company, by Attorney-General Allen.

With the addition of these funds, according to the Attorney-General, the total assets of the defunct company will not exceed $150,000. Indications are, he said, that the liabilities will reach $250,000, signifying that the company will not be able to pay 55 cents on a dollar, as suggested by its attorneys.

In Haverhill, District Attorney Donnell, who is probing the affairs of the branch office there, stated that there are 150 known subscribers in that city who invested $25,000. Most of the clients were foreigners. One invested $5,000, four $1,000, two $900 and several $500.

The district attorney also announced that he was searching for G. Lester Southwell, the Haverhill manager, and a woman stenographer, who have been missing a week.

GUARDS REPULSE ANGRY THRONG

After nearly one week in East Cambridge Jail, Charles Ponzi, whose spectacular "something-for-nothing" scheme collapsed with the biggest crash in the history of local finance, appeared before Commissioner Hayes in the Federal Building today.

He waived examination before Commissioner Hayes in the Federal Building today, and was held for the September term of the Federal Grand Jury.

In default of the original $25,000 bail he was committed to the care of Marshal Duane and will be returned to East Cambridge jail.

Ponzi, who was surrendered by his bondsman on Friday, the 13th, was up today for a continued hearing of the charge of using the mails in a scheme to defraud.

Although immaculate as usual, Ponzi's face showed the strain under which he has labored, and his famous smile was conspicuous by its absence, as he stepped from the automobile that bore him from jail.

Mrs. Ponzi, whose devotion to her husband has been marked, was with him for several hours at the jail previous to Ponzi's transfer to Boston. She was confident that her husband would be able to adjust all his difficulties satisfactorily.

At the Federal Building no precautions were overlooked to protect Ponzi from the danger of harm at the hands of angered note-holders who had suffered by his reverses. Government agents surrounded him as he was taken from the automobile and hurried inside to the office of Marshal Duane, where he was held until the court proceedings began.

A large throng had gathered to obtain another glimpse of the former idol, but instead of cheers and smiles, with which he had been

ARM OF THE LAW REACHES ALL OVER NEW ENGLAND AS WELL

greeted in the past, Ponzi today heard curses and maledictions.

Those who a few weeks ago were extolling Ponzi as the "liberator" and emancipator of the working class today were ready to rend him limb from limb, judging from their expressions. At times the guards found it necessary to use force to press back the hordes of angry investors, who a short time ago were shouting their faith in Ponzi from the housetops.

Ponzi was hurried along so rapidly that his illwishers had little opportunity to take any action.

He was greeted at the Federal Building by members of his array of counsel, and immediately went into conference with them.

SEEK ACCOMPLICES.

Federal and State authorities today spread their net for a general round-up of men who helped Ponzi in his "something for nothing" mirage. The arm of the law has been stretched all over New England and to some cities outside this section. It was said that a search is being made in Passaic and Jersey City in New Jersey for "accomplices."

The arrest of Henry T. H. Nielsen of No. 261 Sidney street, Cambridge, was declared by officials to be only the beginning of the probe.

HOPE FOR FREEDOM.

Though Attorney-General J. Weston Allen seems persistent in holding out for $100,000 bail or a complete confession from Ponzi of his activities there was a strong hope among the Ponzi lawyers that, with a receiver appointed by Judge Morton some time today to conserve Ponzi's assets for his creditors, an avenue would be opened to obtain bail.

With Ponzi's assets, according to latest reports, totalling $4,000,000 Attorney General Allen's office reports that the latest tabulation of unredeemed notes brings his liabilities to [illegible]. This amount represents not the sums of money loaned by nearly 10,000 investors but the principal, plus 50 per cent. interest.

To date there is a wide difference between the liabilities claimed by the Federal authorities and those shown by the State officials' investigation. The State investigation to date has failed to reveal debts in excess of reported assets and does not take into consideration the notes which Ponzi charges were raised or forged.

MANY REFUSE TO REGISTER.

Officials claim, however, that Ponzi noteholders have refused point blank to register at the State House, while many others have not had the opportunity. The authorities are confident that when the investigation has finished, however, it will show Ponzi is hopelessly in debt.

"King of the Hoboes" Jeff Davis called on Ponzi, after the jailed financier's wife had visited him but Sheriff Fairbairn refused to allow him to see the prisoner. Davis explained that his visit was solely actuated by a desire to cheer "a brother hobo." Ponzi, according to Davis, having once belonged to the latter's fraternity.

Sub-Agents Ask Police Aid to Get Dupes' Money Back

Woonsocket, R. I., Aug. 19.—Declaring that they desired to reimburse their duped clients, eight sub-agents of the Old Coony Foreign Exchange branch office here, sought police aid in recovering a total of $18,000 which they claimed had been turned in to the firm. Depositions of the sub-agents are to be submitted to the city solicitor for investigation.

TENANTS CAUGHT WHEN COAL BINS ARE FULL

Unscrupulous landlords have found a new club to wield over their tenants, according to Herbert Ellis of the Rent and Housing Committee. The scheme consists of waiting until the tenant has put in his Winter supply of coal before notifying him of a rent advance. Ellis said he received eighteen complaints of such tactics in one day. Ten cases were settled by inducing the landlords to grant the tenants a three months' extension, under threat of exposure.

FRANCE'S NOTE BACKS U. S.

Secretary Colby Says the Only Point of Diversion Is Recognition of Wrangel

Washington, Aug. 19. — Secretary of State Colby has issued the following statement regarding the French note replying to the American note on the Polish situation:

"The note states without reservation that the French government is in entire accord with the principles set forth in the American note.

REPUDIATES SOVIETISM.

"It adopts in almost identical words the views of this government regarding the Soviet regime in Russia, and declares that France can have no official relation with a conspire against its institutions whose diplomats will be instigators of revolt and whose spokesmen proclaim they will sign contracts with the intention not to observe them.

"The French government further declared without qualification its belief in Polish independence, and its desire for the maintenance of the territorial integrity of Poland.

"Most gratifying is the declaration of the French government of its desire to help the Russian people, and of its opposition to the dismemberment of Russia. The response is a notable declaration upon every viewpoint, and brings to the position taken by the United States a striking emphasis and powerful support.

ONLY ONE DIVERSION.

"On one point there is a diversion, not of purpose or objective, but of policy. This government has not recognized, as the French have done, the authority exercised by General Wrangel in South Russia. But we are disposed to regard the declared agreement of France with the principles of the United States as of more significance than any diversions of policy involved in the specific action of France in this single respect.

"The importance of the French position is that it discloses that the two governments have a common objective. A diversion as to the means to be employed for its attainment should not diminish or qualify the satisfaction arising from so complete an accord as to the main purpose."

The State Department announced that an informal reply to the American note had been received from the Italian government and that a formal reply was expected later.

the sea. In the direction of Mlava we have advanced beyond Ciechanof. The Russians hastily retreated."

Warsaw is joyously celebrating the great victory over the Russians, which came at a time when the most optimistic had about given up hope of saving the capital. Since the dramatic turn in the military situation the people have thrown off their gloom. French army officers, who are taking part in the fighting, are given enthusiastic greeting as they pass through the city.

Poles Fear Bolshevist Trickery at Minsk

London, Aug. 19.—The Polish legation fears Bolshevik trickery in the armistice and preliminary peace negotiations which were to have been resumed by the Russian and Polish delegates at Minsk yesterday.

The Polish legation announced at 1 o'clock this afternoon that neither Warsaw nor the Polish officials at Posen had received any word regarding the renewal of the negotiations at Minsk.

Wrangel Declines to Use British or French Troops

By International News Service.

London, Aug. 19.—General Wrangel, head of the anti-Bolshevik de facto government in Southern Russia, does not wish to use French or British troops against the Soviet army. General Wrangel made this declaration in an interview printed in the Daily Telegraph today.

"I am convinced that the future of Russia cannot be settled by civil war," General Wrangel was quoted as saying. "It could be settled at once but for the Chinese mercenaries used to force Russians to obey the behests of a small band. It was inevitable that the Polish aggressions should raise the national spirit of the Russians. Poland, however, must retain her ethnographical borders.

"We wish to extinguish civil war by a plebiscite that would decide the whole future of Russia. To employ French or British soldiers against our fellow countrymen would be a repetition of Lenine's blunder."

Maurice Predicts Fall of Warsaw Eventually

By International News Service.

London, Aug. 19.—Although the Poles are rolling back the Russians over a wide front and have smashed the Soviet's hope of taking Warsaw at this time, some British military experts expressed belief today that the Polish army cannot achieve a decisive victory over the Reds.

"The Poles at the most can only gain time if the Russo-Polish war continues," said General Sir Frederick Maurice, director of military operations at the War Office during the World War.

"The eventual fall of Warsaw seems a certainty, as the Poles have not got fresh resources to draw upon.

"Both sides need peace, for an epidemic of typhus threatens to overwhelm them next Winter."

Arrest Escort After Girl Is Robbed

New York, Aug. 19.—Following a holdup in which Miss Susanne Duval was robbed of $4,000 in jewels and money in her apartment at No. [illegible] West Ninety-fifth street early today, Donovan D. Shaw, former lieutenant in the air service and instructor at Mineola, who had accompanied her home from a theatre, was arrested.

Shaw is 25 years old. He and Miss Duval have been acquainted for two months.

The robber used what proved to be only a toy water pistol. At his command Shaw tied Miss Duval's hands and then the holdup man tied Shaw's hands and ransacked the apartment. Before leaving he forced the two into a clothes closet and locked the door.

Shaw kicked out a panel of the closet door, thrust his hands, still bound, through the aperture and turned the key. The police were then telephoned and detectives went to the apartment. They found the water pistol on a chair.

Miss Duval told the detectives that when she returned from the theatre with Shaw a man was standing near the door, and that as they passed in Shaw failed to close the door. When the man entered and levelled his "gun," she said, she did not at once put up her hands, but Shaw complied with alacrity, and told her it would be wisest to do so. He also made no resistance, Miss Duval says, when the stranger tied his hands, after having "compelled" him to tie hers.

Shaw told the detectives the bandit had robbed him of $70, but Miss Duval contradicted him. She says that when Shaw handed over his wallet it was empty.

LYNN'S TAX RATE JUMPS 25 P. C. OVER LAST YEAR

Mayor Walter H. Creamer announced today that the tax rate in Lynn this year will be $27.40, an increase of about 25 per cent. over that of last year, as the result of a jump in departmental expenditures of $691,077.71. New valuations found by the assessors this year slightly exceed $500,000, the valuation for 1920 being $101,524,882, as against $100,994,477 in 1919.

Just Loved Her Liquor Woman Tells Court

Detroit, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Edna Marion, forty-five years old, well tailored and hatted, told a magistrate in Windsor that she "just loved liquor."

Mrs. Marion admitted that she was in the habit of consuming on an average of five bottles a day. When she did not drink it herself she had a party and her friends did, she told the court.

Mrs. Marion has for twenty years been a resident of Petite Cote. The other day a consignment of twenty cases of liquor arrived at the express office in Windsor for Mrs. Marion, police said. Mrs. Marion explained that she had forty cases of liquor in the last three months and has none of it left.

"Have you sold any liquor?" she was asked.

"Certainly not," she replied. "I just have to have whiskey to drink."

TAGUE ASKS WOMEN TO REGISTER AS VOTERS

Congressman Peter F. Tague, candidate for re-election in the Tenth District, at two rallies in the South End district asked the voters of Ward Sixto back him in his campaign against bossism. The Congressman appealed to the women of the Tenth District to see to it that their names were placed immediately upon the list of registered voters.

COL. GIFFORD THANKS AMERICAN FOR AID

Editor American:

Farewell services for those of us at New England headquarters who have been assigned to other fields will be held at 8 o'clock, Wednesday evening, August 25, in the Shawmut Congregational Church, Tremont and Brookline streets, and I wish to extend you a cordial invitation to be present.

Please let me take this opportunity to express to you and to the staff of the American the sincere thanks of Mrs. Gifford and myself for the many courtesies and kindnesses for which we and the army have been indebted in our twelve years sojourn in Boston.

The spirit of friendship and co-operation which has actuated the American and the Sunday Advertiser in their dealings with the army, will ever be remembered by us. Our earnest hope is that our successors, Colonel and Mrs. McIntyre, may enjoy a like consideration at your hands. Very truly yours,

ADAM GIFFORD,
Colonel.

Shock-Absorbers For False Teeth

Cleveland, June 15.—Non-Skid Shock Absorbers for false teeth are the latest thing. Heretofore the principle of shock absorbers has been limited in application, but now a Cleveland chemical concern advertises a powder which, sprinkled upon "store teeth," forms a smooth cushion, holds them firmly in place, and gives a "non-skid" effect while they romp over the toughest roasting ears of corn and chew the stickiest candy.

One who has lost his natural teeth can supply himself with this antiseptic, adhesive comfort powder—Corega—at a drug store, and proceed to laugh and sneeze, crack nuts and do other hazardous things without risk of shaking his prized false teeth from their upper and lower berths. 35c at Druggists.—Advertisement.

HEARST PAPERS HAVE FOUGHT TWENTY YEARS FOR SUFFRAGE

CAMPAIGN ALL OVER NATION

Gathered Petitions, Coast to Coast, That Induced Congress to Submit Amendment

The Suffrage Battle Is Won!

No more cheering news has ever come to the women of this country. In the general jubilation the Hearst newspapers heartily join. For the last twenty years, the newspapers of William Randolph Hearst have maintained a campaign from coast to coast ultimately to insure national suffrage for women.

During these years the cause was championed in countless editorials, cartoons and news stories. The columns of the Hearst newspapers were ever open to the leaders of the movement in their campaign to arouse the people of the land to an understanding of the cause and a realization of the benefits to the nation of having its mothers, wives and young women enfranchised.

Only through such an organization as the great chain of Hearst newspapers could the message reach every nook and corner of this wide country.

THE HEARST PETITION.

The Hearst newspapers saw the need of actual, active leadership in 1918, and it was at once provided by the publication in all of the Hearst newspapers of a petition to Congress to adopt suffrage nationally.

The country was then at war, and while there were many distressing problems to face, the Hearst papers advocated suffrage as one of the fundamental of war measures, just as it had stood pre-eminent as a peace problem.

The spontaneous, instant and widespread response of the people of the country to the business of signing the suffrage petition showed in the first few days of this campaign that the PEOPLE of the country were heart and soul in favor of granting the women the vote.

Great open-air mass meetings were held at which prominent men and women added the spoken word to the printed appeal of the Hearst newspapers.

1,050,000 SIGNED.

This petition campaign began on July 1, and on September 11, a fraction more than two months, the petitions gathered by all of the Hearst papers were packed into a big trunk and presented to the Senate.

It was a history-making event on September 11, 1918, when Senator Phelan, of California, arose in the Senate of the United States and said:

"I desire to present to the Senate a petition of one million and fifty thousand citizens from the North, the South, the East and West. It was circulated by the Hearst newspapers in a noble cause and I would call the attention of the Senators to the cause and weight of influence this petition carries.

"The women in my State have long enjoyed suffrage. As a result of that experiment, I am free to state that it is an example worthy to be followed by the commonwealths of the country and by the country itself."

SENATE FINALLY AROUSED.

Several Senators, who previously had not been alert to the feeling sweeping the country in favor of suffrage, were aroused by the presentation of that petition gathered by the Hearst newspapers. The Hearst papers had, indeed, felt the pulse of the nation and had advised the Senate in a concrete and accurate report, just as a physician feels the pulse of a patient and knows by the test what to do.

During the time that the petition was being signed, governors, mayors, officials of small towns and villages, and prominent men and women in all walks of life had sent special messages to the Hearst papers congratulating them in the fight, urging the people to an immediate response, arguing with those still in doubt and in the dark on the question—helping in every manner possible to make the glorious showing which resulted.

The Hearst papers provided the active leadership, but it was the people's co-operation which put it over so big and so convincingly.

That petition represented the successful efforts of years of effort and preparation. When the first editorials and cartoons were printed in the Hearst papers advocating the doctrine of Susan B. Anthony, it is true there was not the widespread co-operation and the hearty response.

TOOK YEARS OF WORK.

It took years of educational work, but yesterday's glorious triumph is the reward. In its early advocacy of suffrage, the Hearst papers did not expect the help and co-operation of the later days, and many a time the cause seemed hopeless, but the papers, believing implicitly in the justice and wisdom of the fight, continued in the face of lethargy, overcoming discouraging obstacles, till at last the country became aroused, interested and aflame with the spirit of the battle.

STRONG APPEAL VOICED BY NEW ENGLAND FOR SENATE ACTION

The campaign to urge upon the United States Senate the necessity of adopting the Susan B. Anthony amendment for the enfranchisement of women today assumed nation-wide proportions.

Hundreds of newspapers in addition to the Hearst publications have taken up the demand on our Senators to pass the amendment forthwith, thereby clearing the track for the great business incident to the winning of the war.

The above facsimiles of editorials and news stories appearing in the Boston American show the extent to which the Hearst newspapers have carried on the fight for suffrage. This fight has been carried on continuously from the time the movement started until the present in the Boston, New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Atlanta newspapers of the Hearst service, in addition to the numerous Hearst magazines, with a circulation reaching millions of people.

"Women Grateful," Says Malone

"Mr. William Randolph Hearst,

it was declared that an investigation would be demanded.

It is charged that Representative Hanover, ratification floor leader, offered a large sum to Representative Harry Burn, Republican, who voted with the antis on the motion to table the resolution, but with the suffragists on the motion to ratify. Affidavits have been prepared, it is declared, in support of the bribery charges. Both Hanover and Burn, however, flatly denied the charges, and suffrage leaders declare they have evidence, damaging to the opposition cause, which they are eager to present if any investigation is undertaken.

Alice Paul's New Slogan "A Party of Our Own"

By International News Service

Washington, D. C., Aug. 19.—Miss Alice Paul, head of the National Woman's party and long a militant suffrage leader, today sounded a new battle cry for women.

Women are not yet fully free, Miss Paul warned, even though it appears that victory has been won by the ratification of the suffrage amendment. Whatever new rights the women receive they must fight for, Miss Paul said. They can expect nothing from the politicians, she tells them, until they stand as a unit in a party of their own.

"Suffrage was not won by the Democratic or Republican party in the last analysis but by the women themselves," Miss Paul said in an exclusive interview. "To the generations of American women who have fought for the political freedom of their sex belongs the credit of their victory.

"The special energies exerted by political leaders in the last months in behalf of ratification were not exerted because they believed that giving women the ballot was a matter of simple justice but because women had become strong enough to create a situation in which the giving of suffrage was politically expedient.

"Women are not yet fully free. It may take long years of education before we become really conscious of our subjection and aroused to the effort necessary to win complete freedom. Unless women stand together and use their potential power for their own protection they can never hope for full equality.

"We must realize that whatever rights we desire we must be prepared to fight for and be strong enough to win. Until we stand as a unit we can expect nothing from politicians. We must have a women's organization with a program devoted to the interests of the women if we are to wrest for women fully participation in the control of life."

HARDING AND COX TO SPEAK AT SAME FAIR

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 19.—Governor James M. Cox and Senator Warren G. Harding will speak from the same platform at the Ohio State Fair here August 31, it is announced.

Invitations were extended to both Presidential candidates some time ago. Governor Cox accepted. Senator Harding previously had accepted, according to Charles E. Morris, private secretary to Governor Cox.

North Carolina Move to Reconsider Amendment

By Universal Service.

Washington, Aug. 19.—A telegram to national headquarters from Nashville stated that leaders of the North Carolina Legislature will today take up a motion to reconsider the suffrage amendment there.

Suffrage was defeated in the North Carolina Senate Tuesday, leaders in the fight to bring the amendment again before both House and Senate are Senator Simmons and Secretary Daniels.

ARLINGTON'S TAX RATE INCREASED TO $28.90

Arlington's tax rate for 1920 was fixed today by the board of assessors at $28.90 on $1,000, this being $1.50 more than last year's record high rate of $27.40.

During the past year the town has gained nearly $4,000,000 in value, chiefly through revaluation of real estate. The total valuation is placed at $24,092,016, as compared with $20,366,093 last year. Of this amount, $21,728,973 is in real estate, showing a gain in value over 1919 of $3,433,259. Personal property is valued at $2,364,043 which is a gain of $287,664. There are now 4737 poll tax payers, not including 346 soldiers and sailors who are exempt.

Hearst's Fight for Suffrage Lauded

Statesmen in both branches of Congress join in words of highest praise of William Randolph Hearst and his publications throughout the country for the publicity campaign launched and carried to a successful conclusion in aid of woman suffrage.

The comment of both Republican and Democratic Senators and Representatives follows:

SENATOR ARTHUR CAPPER, Republican Kansas:

I have been very much pleased with the fine support the Hearst papers gave the suffrage cause. It is a service which will be appreciated, I am sure, by the women of this nation who have been deprived altogether too long of a right which is justly theirs.

SENATOR JAMES D. PHELAN, Democrat, California:

Woman suffrage was inevitable. The Hearst papers in California and elsewhere have borne the heat of the day and should share now the sweets of victory.

SENATOR DAVID I. WALSH, Democrat, Massachusetts:

There is no question about the value of the Hearst papers and publications to campaign for woman suffrage. They were in the fight from the first as they usually are when great human rights are invaded or principles are at stake.

SENATOR WILLIAM F. KIRBY, Democrat, Arkansas:

I congratulate the nation for the wisdom manifested in making use of the 'other half' of its thought power by permitting the women to act directly in the management of its affairs by the exercise of the franchise. The Hearst papers are entitled to much credit for the vigorous and efficient work done to bring this about.

REPRESENTATIVE JAMES R. MANN, Republican, Illinois, chairman of the House Woman Suffrage Committee:

REPRESENTATIVE ELLIOTT, Republican, Indiana, member of the House Woman Suffrage Committee:

There is no doubt that the strong support given the cause by the Hearst newspapers was of great help in securing the ratification of the woman suffrage amendment.

REPRESENTATIVE LITTLE, Republican, Kansas, Member of Woman Suffrage Committee:

Support of the woman suffrage cause by the great Hearst newspapers was of a distinct advantage in creating public sentiment in favor of the suffrage amendment and pushing it along.

REPRESENTATIVE NELSON, Republican, Member of the House Woman Suffrage Committee:

It is my belief that the Hearst newspapers in carrying on the strong publicity campaign had much to do in putting across the woman suffrage amendment. Their support helped materially in crystallizing public sentiment by their intelligent discussion and understanding of the problem.

REPRESENTATIVE SIEGEL, Republican, New York:

The support that the Hearst newspapers have given to the suffrage cause has been of the greatest assistance in obtaining equal rights for the women folks. In addition, by so doing, the Hearst newspapers have helped to make more people realize that they are partners in the government and at the same time they helped to eliminate illiteracy, because woman will take great interest in the public schools.

REPRESENTATIVE BRITTEN, Republican, Illinois:

One of the greatest obstacles the suffrage advocates had to overcome was the misunderstanding of the problem and the misapprehension as to the effect of votes for women on the home life and social order of the country. The interesting and intelligent and forceful manner in which the Hearst newspapers presented the issue to their million readers did much to remove these misgivings and clarify the public mind on the subject. They deserve a liberal share of the credit for the victory. I compliment them.

ALLS ON WOMEN TO REGISTER

yor Extends Time for Recording Voters to Give Them Opportunity

y wire from his summer home at th Haven, Me., Mayor Peters extended the time for registration for state primaries until Friday ght in order to give the women an ditional opportunity to register.

The Mayor's order to the election mmissioners followed receipt of e news that Tennessee had made tion-wide suffrage for women possible by ratifying the Federal mendment. Except for the Mayor's tion registration would have ended last evening.

Only 1000 more women have registered to date than for the last state rimary, although many registered ate yesterday, believing the time ould expire on that day.

National Leaders Exultant in Victory

MRS. MAUD WOOD PARK, chairman of the National League of Women Voters:

The news brings intense joy and relief to the hundreds of women who have sacrificed everything that all women may have freedom. But with this joy comes a feeling of solemnity and awe to those same workers who have learned somewhat of the power for good intelligent voting brings to pass. Our slogan is "Every Woman a Voter in 1920."

MRS. FRANK A. VANDERLIP, chairman of the New York State suffrage organizations:

The relief and joy of the suffrage victory is like that of Armistice day. Both mean the victory of righteousness. Both mean the end of a long, hard struggle. Both mean lives sacrificed to a great cause—the cause of democracy. We with uncovered heads salute the silent dead.

MRS. ABBY SCOTT BAKER, political chairman of the National Woman's Party:

Individual men have helped us splendidly and we thank them heartily, but American women can take to their hearts the happy assurance that women won the enfranchisement of American women.

SECRETARY OF WAR BAKER:

I am very glad to have this demonstration of the fact that America is a modern and progressive nation.

Voters' League to Observe Victory at Little Building

The Boston League of Women Voters will have two days of festivities in celebration of the "Women's Independence Day." The League will hold open house at its headquarters, Rooms 552 to 554 Little Building, where all sympathizers and members will be heartily welcomed by officers of the League.

Mrs. Robert Gould Shaw is the honorary president and Mrs. J. Malcolm Forbes the president of the League. Tea will be served, and a general atmosphere of rejoicing will prevail.

Plans are under way to mark the occasion by appropriate ceremonies, such as the painting of the thirty-sixth State on the suffrage ratification map.

COX ELATED BY RATIFICATION

Democrats Expect Millions of Women's Votes and Victory as a Result

Columbus, O., Aug. 19.—Jubilation reigned in the Democratic camp today as the result of the ratification of the woman suffrage amendment by the Tennessee Legislature.

Governor James M. Cox, Democratic nominee for President, was highly elated when the news of the action of the Tennessee House of Representatives was carried to him at the State House.

Telegrams from party leaders in various parts of the country have begun pouring in congratulating the Governor on the part he played in bringing about ratification of the amendment. Leaders in Columbus called at the State House to personally congratulate the nominee.

The foundation of the Democratic jubilation is the belief that the millions of women who will vote in the November elections as the result of the ratification of the suffrage amendment will contribute to a Democratic victory.

PAYS $150 FINE FOR DRIVING WHILE DRUNK

Raymond A. White of Winchendon, son of L. Q. White, millionaire shoe manufacturer, pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $150 in [illegible] court for operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. White collided with a machine operated by Harold Jaquith. Both machines were damaged and Mrs. Jaquith and her child were injured.

LEADERS IN BAY STATE REJOICE

Suffrage Victory Acclaimed by Massachusetts Women Who Fought for It

Leaders of the suffrage movement throughout the State and nation rejoice in the ratification by the Tennessee Legislature of the Susan B. Anthony amendment giving the women of the United States the right to vote. Their views follow:

MISS ALICE STONE BLACKWELL, noted suffrage leader:

Splendid! I am delighted to hear the good news. We can now all rejoice. The ratification by Tennessee is, of course, the final victory in the big fight. It is my hope now that women will use their vote for the public welfare and never be blind partisans, but will inquire into the merits of candidates and party and use their vote to make the world better.

MRS. WILLIAM HEWSON BALTZELL of Wellesley:

Justice for women at last! What hope for the future! For every bit of justice gained is another round in the ladder to complete justice in all things.

MRS. TRUE WORTHY WHITE, Civic Director of Massachusetts League of Women Voters:

I feel that it's a Man's World no longer. Women have got pretty much all they have asked for. Now it's up to us to make good our pledges. Sounds of rejoicing are almost silenced by the call to get busy and prove our fitness to take our part in the world of politics.

MRS. GEORGE W. PERKINS, manager Massachusetts League of Women Voters:

I am delighted. We have hoped and worked and struggled so long that now that it has come it is difficult to express the joy we feel. If the Secretary of State acts quickly and proclaims the amendment, Massachusetts women will be able to vote in the primaries. The League of Women Voters has been urging women to register. We shall now redouble our efforts to reach as many women as possible.

FLORENCE H. LUSCOMB, of the Boston League of Women Voters:

This, "Woman's Independence Day," will be a red letter day in history, one of those great dates to which the world looks back as marking a new era of human liberty. It is a glorious privilege to live at such an hour.

MRS. IDA PORTER-BOYER, Special Lecturer, Boston League of Women Voters:

If it were possible to bring back the pioneers of this movement I think that there would be none so joyous as those who had the first hard days of inauguration. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony, Lucy Stone, Henry B. Blackwell, Julia Ward Howe and all that brilliant galaxy of women who had the vision and had the courage to launch a movement for freedom that we younger women have been privileged to see consummated.

MABEL GILLESPIE, Vice President Massachusetts State Branch, A. F. of L.:

I am gratified at the action of the Tennessee Legislature in ratifying the Federal suffrage amendment, not only because it will give women the opportunity to vote in the coming Presidential election, but because it settles, once and for all, the status of women in the United States. At a time when the country most needs it, it will bring into play a great constructive force which I believe will be a redemptive power. Women as a body are conservative, but they will not be afraid to work for changes that will bring justice.

JUDITH W. SMITH, probably oldest suffragist in the State:

My mother and I, more than seventy years ago, signed the first petition that went to the Massachusetts Legislature asking that women should vote.

I am glad the vote has come in my day, even though being already ninety-nine years old I cannot hope to use it many times, but other women will, and they and their children and the country they live in will be the better.

Two Cousins in Maine Plan to Enter Contest for Share of Millions

Mechanic Falls, Me., Aug. 19.—Dennis F. Marr of this place is confident he will receive a portion of the millions left by his cousin, Edward F. Searles of Methuen, Mass., if the will is broken.

"I am entitled to a share of the fortune as much as the other cousins," declared Mr. Marr, "and I intend to press my claim. I visited Cousin Edward when I was a child. Then my mother moved to Maine, and it is not surprising that Edward lost track of us."

Another cousin of the Methuen millionaire, Alonzo Marr of Durham, holds views similar to those of his brother, Dennis. He says there can be no question regarding the kinship, but is not as confident as his brother over the prospects of their claim.

MOTHER WAS A SEARLES.

Dennis F. Marr is seventy-seven and his brother is sixty-five. The former is in poor health, has retired from active business and makes his home with Mrs. Angie Maines. Alonzo is a thrifty Durham farmer.

"Our mother," said Dennis, "was Sally Searles, an own sister to the father of Edward F. Searles. When I was a small child my mother took me to her brother's home and there I played with Edward, his son, who was two years older than I. I do not recall that I ever saw my cousin again, but I called at his house once or twice when he was not at home.

"My mother first married [illegible]. For her second husband she chose Asa Marr, with whom she came to Maine to live. They first located at Minot, later at Durham. Mother had previously lived at Groton and Lunenburg, Mass.

FAMILIES DRIFTED APART.

"I remember hearing mother say that her folks left a small property which was divided among the children, Pamelia, our aunt, and Sally, our mother, each receiving $600. Pamelia married a man named Landers and located in Auburn. Later she married Nathaniel Osgood and moved to Durham.

"Upon the death of Osgood, my aunt lived upon the place until her death. This place is now the property of my brother Alonzo.

"By reason of marriages and changes of residence, it is not strange that my cousin lost track of the family and that when he made his will he did not know whether we were alive or dead.

"We had two older brothers, Alfred and Alvin, but they died years ago. We also lost two sisters, Rhoda, who married Charles Dyer for her first husband and a Mr. Ward for her second husband; and Augusta, who was also twice married, her first husband being S. H. Bradeen and her second husband Calvin S. Stillings. They lived near Great Falls, Mass. But my brother Alonzo and myself are the only members of our family now living."

CANDIDATES' RECORDS COMPILED BY A. F. OF L.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The complete political records of Harding and Cox, the Republican and Democratic nominees for the presidency, have been compiled by the American Federation of Labor, and a copy will be put in the hands of each of the [illegible] union workers in the country.

MOTHER WITHDRAWS BAIL FOR ERRING SON

Chicopee, Aug. 19.—Because her son, Frank, failed to aid in her support and otherwise badly conducted himself, Mrs. Sophie Smith withdrew $500 bail she had furnished for him and he is back in the county jail. Smith was arrested for driving away a car without permission.

40 ARMORY WORKERS TO RETIRE ON PENSION

Springfield, Aug. 19.—Forty employes of the United States armory will retire Saturday under pension. The men include both clerical and mechanical department members, the former having reached the age limit of seventy years and the latter sixty-five years.

(Aids to Beauty)

Here is a home treatment for removing hairs that is quick, painless and inexpensive: With some powdered delatone and water make enough paste to thickly cover the objectionable hairs, apply and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be left soft, clear and hairless. This treatment will not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be careful to get real delatone. Mix fresh as wanted.—Advertisement.

CLEAR YOUR COMPLEXION

Of Those Unsightly Skin Blemishes

Use the Guaranteed BLACK and WHITE Beauty Treatment

Some people dislike to use face powder, creams or rouge, but they cannot suffer the embarrassment of a dark, sallow, blotchy, pimply skin. They therefore depend on powders and rouge to cover up or hide their embarrassing facial blemishes, little realizing that the longer their use is continued, the more aggravated the trouble becomes.

Why don't you clear your complexion, remove those unsightly skin blemishes which so distress you? It's easy—no more trouble than applying cold cream or rouge. You cleanse the skin with Black and White Soap just before retiring and then apply Black and White Ointment. In the morning you wash off the Ointment. No trouble, and the results are so satisfactory.

Go to your nearest drug store or toilet counter today and get you a package of Black and White Ointment and a bar of Black and White Soap. You can buy both for 50c. Beauty Parlors would charge a hundred times more for the same results. If you cannot find the Ointment and Soap, accept no substitute, but send 50c to the manufacturers for the complete treatment.

A sample, literature and a Black and White Birthday and Dream Book free if you will clip and mail this advertisement to Black and White, Box 913, Memphis, Tenn.

BLACK AND WHITE OINTMENT Brightens the skin

Luxuriant Hair Promoted By Cuticura

WIFE LOSES RACE WITH SUICIDE

Chases Husband to Apartment, Arriving Too Late to Prevent Rash Deed

By Universal Service.

New York, Aug. 19. — "I think I will kill myself."

Shouting these words at his wife, Samuel F. Schunkler, an insurance broker, brushed her aside, rushed into a sporting goods store and bought a revolver and cartridges and, still eluding his wife, boarded a street car and went to his apartment in Newark.

Mrs. Schunkler succeeded in tracing her husband, but reached the door of his apartment just as he fired a shot. When she entered she found her husband dead on the floor of the living room.

Schunkler had been separated from his wife for several months. She called at his office in the financial district and requested money for the support of their twelve-year-old daughter. The broker asked his wife to go to his apartment with him, but en route a quarrel occurred which led to the tragedy.

BETHLEHEM LOW BIDDER ON SIX NEW SUBMARINES

Washington, Aug. 19.—The Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation placed the lowest bid for the construction of the remaining six submarines of the nine authorized in the 1916 three-year building program. The bids were $1,554,000 each for two vessels or $3,990,000 each for the six.

The remaining boats of the new fleet will be similar to the three that are now under construction at the Portsmouth, N. H., navy yard. They are more than 300 feet in length, a surface speed of 21 knots, and a displacement of about 2,000 tons.

MILK USERS URGED TO RETURN BOTTLES

James O. Jordan, chief inspector of the milk division of the Boston Health department, today declared that a milk and cream bottle famine is imminent and urged all householders to promptly return the bottles when empty.

"The situation is now so serious," he said, "that unless there is early relief the unusual expense to which the dealers are now laboring will be reflected in the price of milk and cream for the coming months."

29 ARE KILLED IN SILESIAN CLASH

Nine French Soldiers, Twenty German and Polish Civilians Fall in Street Battle

By KARL H. VON WIEGAND,
Boston American Staff Correspondent.

Berlin, Aug. 19.—In a street battle in Kattowitz between the soldiers of the French Army of Occupation and the German and Polish civilians twenty Germans and Poles and nine Frenchmen were killed.

Dr. Milewski, one of the chief Polish leaders, was beaten to death and his body thrown into the river. The German dead include Major von Kleist, commander of the Sicherheitswehr.

These reports were received at the German Foreign Office from that corner of Silesia which is practically "no man's land." It was cut off from Germany by the treaty of Versailles and is occupied by French troops for the League of Nations. Neither Germany nor Poland have sovereignty and the country which is finally to rule the region will not be determined until a vote is taken by the inhabitants.

The French used machine guns and hand grenades in firing into the mob, the reports stated.

The incident follows closely upon the ruthlessness charged against the French military in the Sarre Valley and new cases of outrages on German women and girls by the French black troops.

THREE HUNTERS HELD FOR KILLING WRONG BIRD

Reginald Bolles of Ipswich, Fred Cheney of Byfield, and Roy Baker of Cotuit were held in $500 for the Federal Grand Jury when they were arraigned before Commissioner Hayes charged with violation of the Migratory Bird Act.

Bolles was charged with killing and having in his possession one dowitcher and one grass snipe, Cheney with killing and having in his possession palnade plovers, and Baker eight lesser sand pipers.

CANOPIC DELAYED BY HEAVY FOG BANK

Held back by heavy fog, the White Star Line steamship Canopic from Genoa, Naples, and the Azores, will not arrive at the harbor entrance until 9 o'clock tonight, according to a wireless message received from Captain Berry, the commander. The big ship with 1510 passengers aboard is more than 15 hours late.

100 GIRLS READY FOR BIG DIVE

Entrants in American Swimming Contest Come From All Over New England

Ever see 100 or more girls dive from a raft into the water at one time?

Well, that privilege will be afforded spectators who attend the water carnival to be conducted by the Boston American in the Charles River Basin Saturday afternoon, August 28.

The "big splash," as the bathing girls call the start of the race, is scheduled for 2 p. m. A pistol will start the contestants and send them upstream to the stake boat near the Harvard Bridge, turning at the left and thence down stream to the starting point. The race is sanctioned by the New England Amateur Athletic Association.

The beautiful esplanade which runs along the course of the race is an ideal place from which to view the girls as they struggle through the water. Everybody is invited to witness this wonderful race.

The entrants are from all sections of New England and include some of the fastest swimmers in this part of the country. Handsome prizes will be awarded the first five winners and the leading girl will be designated New England's champion girl swimmer for 1920. Every girl who finishes will be given a handsome diploma.

So many small snapshots have been received by the Swimming Editor that he is compelled to ask girls not to send any more as they are not large and clear enough for publication.

Girls are expected to be at the starting point of the race on time. They should be ready to leave the dressing tent at 1:45. Remember, the race officials have to check up and allot each girl a number. The dressing tents will be near the Union Boat Clubhouse on the Esplanade, opposite Revere street.

The latest entrants are:

Helen Harrington, twenty-five, Fourth street, South Boston.
Olive Holland, eighteen, Wollaston.
Helen Nicholson, seventeen, No. 17 Delle avenue, Roxbury.
Margaret Scully, sixteen, Draper street, Dorchester.
Agnes Collins, sixteen, Draper street, Dorchester.
[illegible] Tobin, seventeen, No. 680 Tremont street, Boston.
Mary Barret, ten, No. 161 Tyler street, Boston.
Grace L. Hirschberg, twenty-two, No. 215 Pearl street, Cambridge.

CHARGES HER FRIEND ARRANGED A HOLDUP

New York, Aug. 19.—Robbed of $4,000 worth of jewels in her apartment by a man who used a toy water-pistol, Miss Susanne Duval today caused the arrest of Donovan L. Shaw, instructor at the Mineola flying field, who accompanied her home last night. She said when they returned from a theatre a man was standing in the hallway and Shaw left the door ajar. When called upon to hold up their hands, Miss Duval said, Shaw complied and advised her not to resist, and himself handed over a pocketbook which she says was empty.

$10,000 REWARD FOR LOST GEMS

Denegre Residence at Manchester-by-the-Sea Looted of $20,000 in Jewels

Manchester-by-the-Sea, Aug. 19.—Walter D. Denegre, a wealthy retired lawyer of New Orleans, today offered a reward of $10,000 for the recovery of gems valued at more than $20,000 stolen from his Summer home, Villa Crest.

The thieves carried off only the finest pieces of jewelry and all articles which were engraved or could be easily identified were left behind.

Among the articles stolen were Mrs. Denegre's diamond neckband, diamond rings, pin and watch and a mahogany steel-lined jewel box, bolted to the floor of the closet, was removed and carried off.

SHIP BREAKING UP; CREW SAFE

27 Men of Ss. Montara Wrecked Off Nova Scotia Are Brought to Boston

The American steamship Montara, which grounded on the beach at Gooseberry Cove, Cape Breton, N. S., is breaking up and will be a total loss, the twenty-seven members of the crew, who reached Boston today, reported. The crew arrived in Boston on the Prince Arthur, having been furnished transportation by the American consul at Sydney.

The men were not accompanied by officers of the ship. Chief Officer James Pitkin of Boston remained with Captain William P. Bangs at the scene of the wreck.

The vessel was enroute from Botsford, N. F., to Louisburg, N. S., when she went ashore in a fog.

CHILD AWARDED TO RELATIVES

Father Loses Case Against Alleged Abductors of Constance Winter

Laconia, N. H., Aug. 19.—A court decision here awarded custody of Constance Hope Winter, aged six, to her alleged abductors, Ella F. Buchanan, an aunt, and Helen M. Winter, a sister, of Barnstead. Nicholas Winter, father of the child, had won a fight to extradite the two women back to Ottumwa, Iowa, whence, he charged, they abducted his daughter on October 13 last. The women then started habeas corpus proceedings that led to Judge Marble's decision that the little girl's welfare would be best promoted in the custody of her aunt and sister.

The mother of the child died soon after she was born. Detectives, employed by the father, located her on Miss Buchanan's farm in Barnstead after she had disappeared from Ottumwa. Judge Marble ruled that if the Supreme Court should uphold the extradition proceedings and surrender the aunt and sister to the State of Iowa, a temporary custodian shall be appointed for the child during their absence.

SUSPENDED PRISON OFFICER GIVEN HEARING

William J. Crowley, State Prison officer who was suspended for failure in the performance of his duty at the time Barney, Ward and Manster escaped, was given a hearing today by Judge Sullivan in Charlestown Police Court. He demands reinstatement and under the law the court may review his case.

MILK DEALERS FINED IN CHARLESTOWN

On a charge of using an unclean milk container, Francis S. Cumming Company, milk dealers, paid a fine of $20 in Charlestown Court. A fine of $15 was paid by the Floyd Lunch Company of No. 39 Main street, Charlestown, for selling cream below standard.

CATCH ALLEGED AUTO THIEF AT GUN POINT

Harry Evans, twenty-nine, of Carver street, was arrested, charged with larceny of an automobile, after a spectacular chase through Arlington street and Commonwealth avenue to Gloucester street, where Traffic Officer William R. Chatfield leaped from a pursuing machine into the stolen car and covered the driver with his revolver. The machine, valued at $450, is the property of the Swinehart Tire & Rubber Co., No. 62 Brookline avenue.

PROVIDENCE SENATOR'S WIFE SUES FOR DIVORCE

Providence, Aug. 19.—State Senator Arthur L. Smith, president of the Senate and one of the powers of the Republican party in the State, has been sued in the Superior Court for Providence and Bristol Counties for separation by his wife, who is prominent socially and is president of the Warren Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Hearing on the petitioners' request for separate maintenance, pending the hearing of the case, is set for August 24.

Goodbye, Boston; Friday Is the Last Day of My Lockhart "Mill-End" Sale

On Friday, the last day of my sale in Boston, I will present a bargain state of things that is the inevitable consequence of the big business we are doing. I will deluge this city with some advantages Friday morning that will make your home work forget it ever existed. Thoughtful minds need little coaching to convince them that a Lockhart Sale after 9 days furious selling must have short lots in great quantities to close out. Such is exactly true here. Don't look for a time to gather something entirely for nothing, but your influence and opinion will be changed by the circumstances that I press upon you Friday. Do not try to escape your duty of coming here. Let all strong people stand in the foreground and judiciously meet their obligations, for you will be enriched; while the shiftless, compromising people will not know what is happening here.

C. A. Lockhart

OY IS DROWNED IN GASOMETER

Falls Through Window Into Twelve Feet of Water in Charlestown

William Mahoney, eight-year-old son of Daniel Mahoney of Decatur street, Charlestown, was drowned in an unused gasometer on Chauncey street, near his home, when he fell through an open window after climbing the side of the structure on a ladder.

A boat from the Charlestown Navy Yard, manned by naval officers and men, recovered the body after the effort of the Charlestown fire department, which was summoned, had failed.

Twelve feet of rain water had collected in the shaft. The youthful victim's body was recovered with grappling irons from the bottom of the pool.

Mahoney, with Joseph Sullivan, aged nine, of No. 164 Chelsea street, was playing at the time.

Sullivan, alarmed by Mahoney's failure to reappear at the window, notified a woman neighbor. The Charlestown police summoned the fire department. After an hour's search a call for assistance was sent to the Navy Yard.

Lieutenant-Commander W. L. Deyo was detailed to the scene of the drowning with a boat and crew.

The body was recovered near the open window through which the boy fell. It was turned over to his parents.

SALEM MAN MISSING FROM HOME TEN DAYS

Relatives of Simone Tricomi, aged fifty-two, of No. 4 High street, Salem, today asked the Boston American to assist in locating Tricomi, whom they said had been missing since August 8. On that date he told a daughter, Mrs. John Pirrona, with whom he resided, that he was going to Boston. He is a man of dark complexion and when he left home wore a blue serge suit and soft hat. He appears several years younger than his real age.

Hobble Skirt Figures in $20,000 Suit

Counsel for Michael H. Glynn of Brighton, who is being sued by Miss Alice Goldstein for $20,000 for injuries sustained to her knee on November 17, 1919, by falling down a flight of cellar stairs in Glynn's store, at No. 386 Washington street, Brighton, in which she was employed as a bookkeeper, wants her to answer whether at the time of the alleged accident she was wearing a "hobble" skirt.

She is also asked whether, prior to the accident, she had fallen or stumbled while wearing a "hobble" skirt.

TAX CUTS DEEP IN BIG LEGACY

Walker Must Pay Twelve Million of Fortune Left Him by Searles of Methuen

By Universal Service.

New York, Aug. 19.—State and federal inheritance taxes will reduce the $10,000,000 legacy left to Arthur T. Walker by the will of Edward F. Searles by about $12,0000,00023.

The federal tax alone will amount to $11,461,050, and, according to the decision in the Hetty Green inheritance tax case, Walker will have to pay the State a tax of $411,150.

Authorities stated today that Walker will not be required to pay the Canadian tax even though it does turn out that he is an unnaturalized Canadian. This saves the former clerk $16,000,000.

Lewis L. Delafield, co-executor, and Walker plan to offer the will for probate in the Essex county, Massachusetts, courts. Walker still refuses to make a statement.

HUB MAN SENTENCED ON WIFE'S COMPLAINT

North Adams, Aug. 19.—After being severely lectured by Judge C. T. Phelps, who declared that if he can afford to own an automobile he can certainly look after his family, Louis F. Quimby of Boston, where he is employed as a wheat agent for the Cudahy Packing Company, was found guilty in the local court of non-support of his wife and two children. He was given a four months' suspended sentence to the house of correction and was placed on probation for two years. Meanwhile he must pay his wife $10 a week and an additional $2 weekly for support of the children.

"I Only Want to Be Clean"

HE found her beside a little purling stream, an unkempt, dirty, half-wild creature.

Born in squalor and misery, bred to a life of ignorance, hardship and degradation, there burned in the soul of this social outcast the spark of hope for better things.

She found an ideal and lived for it alone, and the flame of passionate, adoring love for one far above her, carried her up out of the mire to respectability and comfort.

But did she win his love? Could he overlook what she had been?

Read "The Rise of Liz o' the Lane" in True Story Magazine for September. The amazing autobiography of a girl who couldn't stay down.

Your Story May Win Five Hundred Dollars Too

"Truth is Stranger than Fiction" — that is the principle upon which True Story magazine is published. That is why it is different. True Story Magazine is not only read by its readers, it is written by its readers.

The editors want stories — true stories. And they want the most vital, interesting—the best they can get.

It is for this reason that they have opened a contest not only for their readers, but for anyone who has a real True Success Story to tell.

The Contest Is Open

Have you attained success or missed it? Have you had a gripping, thrilling experience that others are eager to hear?—Why don't you write it? It may bring you the lion's share of the $1000.00 prize. True Story Magazine has set apart $1000.00 for the best success stories it will publish between November 1920 and February 1st, 1921. $500 will go to the best story, $100 each will be awarded for the five next best. $100 will be paid every month from November until March for the best Success story appearing in each issue.

We learn by the experiences of others. Your story may be just the thing to make True Story Magazine more than ever alive.

Get the new issue of True-Story today. Look it over and see what kind of magazine it it. Read some of the amazing stories, they will help you to see what others are doing and have done. Just such men and women as yourself write the stories that appear on its pages.

Your life story will receive serious consideration from True-Story's Contest Editor. And if accepted you will be well paid for it.

HALT 12-RIDE TICKET RAISE

Railroads Must First Get Public Utility Board's Permission, Says Allen

Before the railroads operating in this State can put into effect a 20 per cent. increase upon twelve-ride commutation tickets, which they propose to do August 26, they must first secure the authority of the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities.

This, in substance, is the opinion of Attorney-General J. Weston Allen in answer to a question from the Public Utilities Department as to its powers.

In 1913 the Legislature passed a law placing in the hands of the department full authority to establish rates for common carriers. Previously, in 1908, the Legislature had enacted a law explicitely providing what rates should be charged on twelve-ride tickets.

The attorney-general was asked if the 1913 law repealed that of 1908. He answered in the affirmative.

Sold "Bitters," Fined

Mrs. Angelina Banana was fined $200 by the Quincy district court on a charge of selling "Chinese bitters" containing 16.85 per cent alcohol. Her husband, Charles Banana, was found not guilty on a similar complaint. The wife appealed.

TAKE PHOSPHATE WITH MEALS IN SUMMER-TIME

Your Nerves Demand It, Your Blood Needs It, Say Physicians

There's not enough phosphorus in modern foods to benefit nearly one-half of the men and women of America, scientists declare.

To overcome this lack of an element of your body that is necessary to your health, your happiness and even your success in life, weak, anaemic, nervous, run-down people are advised to take Bitro-Phosphate as dispensed in leading drug stores in the original package.

Speaking of people who are easily fatigued, who lack ambition, nerve and are oftimes thin, weak and sadly lacking in firm, healthy flesh, Joseph D. Harrigan, formerly Visiting Specialist North Easton Dispensary, N. Y., says: "Patients who were apparently physical wrecks, who foolishly thought they needed only a blood tonic to enrich the blood, have come for treatment trembling and shaking, their nerve force almost exhausted, and in many such cases the administering of Bitro-Phosphate has produced seemingly magical results."

People who feel the heat of Summer, tire easily and often become irritable and depressed, will find Bitro-Phosphate an inexpensive and helpful friend.

Druggists report a wonderful increase in the demand from men and women who are anxious to renew old-time ambition and who are making an honest effort to become vigorous and keen-minded, with a power of endurance that denotes almost perfect health.

They ask for Bitro-Phosphate because they know they need an inexpensive organic phosphate.

Visits Sing Sing; His Straw Hat Stolen

Ossining, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Certain inmates of Sing Sing prison had a little practice at their old trade when Policeman John Buckley of the New York city police department donned a new straw hat and went a-visiting at the prison.

It slipped his mind that he was in Sing Sing, so he placed his straw hat on a bench and left the room for a time. On his return the straw hat was gone. All took the event as a matter of course except the policeman. Warden Lewis C. Lawes said he could not assure visitors against loss save when they came on official business.

CAMBRIDGE GIRL DRINKS POISON

Attempts Suicide in Detroit After Married "Fiance" Appears in Court

Detroit, Mich., August 19.—Following the arraignment in the Federal Court here of John W. Graham, charged with violating the Mann Act, Miss Marie Howland, aged twenty-three, of Cambridge, Mass. whom it is charged he brought to this city from her Bay State home, attempted to kill herself by drinking poison. She was treated at a hospital and released.

It is charged that Graham, twenty years the girl's senior, after arriving in this city with her, broke his promise to divorce his wife and wed the girl. He is alleged to have told her that his love for his wife had returned. The defendant's wife is trying to raise $1,000 bonds for him.

GIRL WINS $10 BY EATING ELEVEN PIES

Providence, R. I., Aug. 19.—The Scituate Old Home observance was a success, its directors declared today, in spite of unfavorable weather conditions. Several hundred persons attended the exercises on the Providence County Fair Grounds. Lizzie Bowen won a $10 prize for eating eleven blueberry pies. Addresses were given by Lieutenant-Governor Sans Souci and Rev. Ernest V. Claypool.

FOUND GERMANS STILL LOYAL TO THE KAISER

"German people are as loyal as ever to the Kaiser and also are in sympathy with the Russian Bolsheviki," declared Lieutenant-Colonel Fred G. 'WET' CONGRESS IS FEARED

Wheeler Warns Prohibition Advocates Against Being Over-Confident

By International News Service.

Washington, Aug. 19.—A "wet" Congress may be elected next Fall unless prohibition advocates awaken to the "Danger of over-confidence," Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-saloon League, warned today.

More than 100 candidates for election to Congress are "wet," Wheeler stated, and fourteen associations are engaged in carrying out "a program of nullification of the prohibition law."

In the race for the Senate there are a number of candidates who are running upon a "wet" platform, Wheeler declared, mentioning "Brandegee of Connecticut, Phelan of California, Penrose of Pennsylvania and Wadsworth of New York."

How to Make Your Own Complexion Treatment at Home

A Free Oatmeal Prescription Does Its Work Overnight.

New York—"It is my own discovery, and it takes just one night to get such marvelous results," says Mae Edna Wilder, when her friends ask her about her wonderful complexion and the improved appearance of her hands and arms. "You can do the same thing if you follow my advice," she says. "I feel it my duty to tell every girl and woman what this wonderful prescription did for me. Just think of it. All this change in a single night! I never tire of telling others just what brought about such remarkable results. Here is the identical formula that removed every defect from my face, neck, hands and arms. Until you try it you can form no idea of the marvelous change it will make in just one application. The prescription which you can prepare at your own home is as follows. Go to any grocery and get 10c worth of ordinary oatmeal, and from any department or drug store a bottle of Derwillo. Prepare the oatmeal as directed in every package of Derwillo. Before applying Derwillo cleanse the skin thoroughly with a good cleansing cream. (Liska cold cream I have found to be the best). The first application will astonish you. It makes the skin appear transparent, smooth and velvety. I especially recommend it for dark, sallow skin, shiny nose, freckles, tan, sun spots, coarse pores, rough skin, ruddiness, wrinkles and, in fact, every blemish the face, hands and arms are heir to. If your neck or chest are discolored from exposure, apply this combination there and the objectionable defect will disappear as if by magic. It is absolutely harmless and will not produce or stimulate a growth of hair. Since short sleeves are in vogue it is necessary to have beautiful hands and arms and no matter how rough and ungainly the hands and arms, or what abuses they have had through hard work and exposure to sun and wind, this combination will work a wonderful transformation. Thousands who are using it report the same results I have had."

Miss O. C. says: "My complexion was poor and my skin rough. My neck, chest, hands and arms were dark from exposure. The very first application of this wonderful Derwillo-oatmeal combination convinced me that my poor complexion and skin blemishes would soon be a thing of the past. In a few weeks all these unsightly defects had entirely disappeared and I shall always use it to keep my complexion at its best all the time. I have recommended it to my girl friends and they are just as enthusiastic over it as I am. We all use it before going to the theatre, dances or parties and it's wonderful what a difference it makes in our appearance."

Mrs. G. V. writes: "Oatmeal and Derwillo have worked miracles with my complexion. I had many despised wrinkles and a sallow, rough skin. My hands and arms were covered with freckles. After eight weeks' use of Mae Edna Wilder's wonderful complexion prescription these objectionable defects have entirely vanished. I look ten years younger and advise every girl and woman to try it and I feel confident after one or two applications they will use it continually and be just as favorably impressed with it as I am. I recommend it to all of my friends."

NOTE—to get the best effect be sure to follow the complete directions contained in every package of Derwillo, and it is so simple that anyone can use it, and so inexpensive that any girl or woman can afford it. Department stores and druggists guarantee that there will be a noticeable improvement after the first application or they will refund the money. It is sold in Boston and vicinity at all toilet counters under a money refund guarantee.

U. S. SPIES GET SOVIET SECRETS

Were "Deported" on Ark; Palmer Directs Vast Organization, Says Diplomatic Source

By Universal Service.

Paris, Aug. 19.—That A. Mitchell Palmer, Attorney-General of the United States is the head of a vast underground organization of international intelligence agents was learned by Universal Service today through a diplomatic source.

Despite Washington's proclaimed policy of "hands off Europe," an army of American detectives has been busy since the armistice gathering data by which, it is stated, it hopes to begin world-wide propaganda to combat the Moscow government.

Several of the cleverest of the operatives, one of whom distinguished himself in the capture of the Zimmerman note to Mexico, by which Germany tried to get that country into war with the United States, actually penetrated into Russia by means of "cooked" documents purporting to come from Red leaders in the United States. This group apparently had unlimited funds at its disposal.

Four other agents, it is stated were 'deported' from the United States on the boat which took Emma Goldman and other anarchists back to Russia. These four were listed as "undersirable anarchists."

They attempted to gain the confidence of Lenine, Trotzky, Kameneff and other leaders of the Bolshevist government.

During more than a year of operations, the secret agents successfully sent to the United States a mass of documents purporting to describe the inner workings of Communism, particularly in Moscow, Petrograd, Novogorod, Vilna, Kief and other large centers, as seen through American eyes.

Clamp on "Dry" Lid Tighter in N. Y.

By Universal Service.

New York, Aug. 19.—The lid of drought was fastened pretty nearly, never to come off, on New York today.

There was a boom in bootleg cheer. Prices hitherto ruling at from 50 cents to 75 cents "per copy" bulled their way up to $1.50 and even $2 per imbibe.

Chief Shevlin declared today that as a result of the conference he has just had with Prohibition Commissioner Kramer in Washington some missing rivets have been bolted into place. It's going to be harder than ever to withdraw whiskey from bond.

"It will be hard to get under our system," said Shevlin.

FREIGHT CAR DELAYS WILL BE PENALIZED

Heavy penalties for delays in handling open-top and all other freight cars containing coal and coke were effected throughout the country today in an attempt to expedite freight movements. The penalties will be made in addition to the usual freight and demurrage charges and will be at the rate of $10 a day for each day's delay after the first forty-eight hours.

PRICES OF FOODS SHOW DECLINE

Farm Products and Clothing Display Considerable Recession, Says Bureau

Washington, Aug. 19.—Further decline in the general level of wholesale prices in the United States in July is shown by information collected in representative markets by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, just made public here.

Measured by changes in the bureau's weighted index number, in which each commodity has an influence commensurate with its importance in the country's markets, the decline from the June level was more than 2½ per cent.

Farm products, food and clothing showed considerable price recessions. Increases for farm products were 2.9 per cent., food nearly 4 per cent., clothing about 5½ per cent. Smaller decreases were recorded for lumber and building materials, chemicals and drugs and miscellaneous commodities.

The trend of prices for fuel and lighting materials continued upward, with an increase of nearly 2½ per cent.

Measured by change in the index numbers, the year from July, 1919, to July, 1920, showed increases of 24.1 per cent. for food; 12.4 for clothing and cloth; 47.4 for fuel and lighting materials; 73 per cent. for lumber and building materials; 47.8 for house furnishing goods, and 26.9 for drugs and chemicals.

Caring for Baby During Hot Spells

THE young mother soon learns from experience that summer days are often days that try her patience. The heat makes baby peevish, restless and cross. Foods that in colder weather were easily digested, now seem to cause distress.

Whether the milk or the gruel is at fault, see that the bowels move regularly. There is nothing that creates greater discomfort in the summer than constipation. It heats the blood and causes nervousness, headache, fever, colds and a host of minor ills. In these little ailments it is always well to suspect constipation and give half a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, and the most ideal medicine you can give a baby. It is mild and gentle in action, never gripes and tastes good.

Mothers have had remarkable success with Syrup Pepsin. Mrs. C. M. Newton of 2430 E. Third St., Dayton, Ohio, has a son who was constipated from birth. She tried many medicines and gave warm water injections every evening for weeks, without benefit. Then she bought a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at a drug store and it proved effective at once. The boy is now seven, and has not been constipated since. Wherever there is a baby these hot days there should be a bottle of Syrup Pepsin.

FREE Millions of people of all ages suffer from occasional or chronic constipation. Let them send name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 512 Washington Street, Monticello, Ill., for a free sample bottle of his wonderful Syrup Pepsin. 8 million bottles were bought at drug stores last year, the largest sale in the world.

"The Fighting 39th"

Routs the High Price Enemy

THIS August Furniture Sale now in its third record-breaking week is Moller's 39th Annual Sale.

Reductions are so radical that our salesmen, accustomed as they are to lower prices, are frankly amazed. They have labeled the Sale—"The Fighting 39th." The fight is on the high prices that have kept many young people from happiness in homes of their own, many, many women from the things they need to freshen-up old homes.

The fight is to a "finish"—the transferring of half a million dollars worth of fine new furniture from our floors to homes.

By buying at the "Fighting 39th Sale" with its lowest in history prices, and by using your credit at Moller's you have a furniture opportunity without a precedent, and without the possibility of an equal for some time to come.

3-Piece Living Room Suite, upholstered in lovely mulberry and gold figured velour. Of course, cane backs and sides. The kind you have your heart set on, because you know cane bespeaks good taste and good furniture. "39th" Sale Price $595.00

4-Piece Bedroom Suite, in the much wanted ivory finish, Dresser, Bed, Chiffonier and Dressing Table. "39th" Sale Price $189.50

Brass Beds, in the hard to find at any price, ribbon stripe, satin finish, 2-inch post, ½-in. filler, full size. "39th" Sale Price $26.98

Handsome Silk Shade Floor Lamps, from $22.50 upward.

BOSTON MAN DROWNS WITH BOAT CAPTAIN

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Aug. 19.—Captain William McCrae of the motor boat Strathgartney, which plies as a packet between Charlottetown and Bunshaw on the West river, and William McLeod of Boston who was home on a visit to his native village of Newhaven were both drowned near McEwen's wharf. McLeod lost his balance and fell overboard while sounding, and McCrea, who was a good swimmer, jumped in after him. Both were swept away.

HALT 12-RIDE TICKET RAISE

Railroads Must First Get Public Utility Board's Permission, Says Allen

Before the railroads operating in this State can put into effect a 20 per cent. increase upon twelve-ride commutation tickets, which they propose to do August 26, they must first secure the authority of the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities.

This, in substance, is the opinion of Attorney-General J. Weston Allen in answer to a question from the Public Utilities Department as to its powers.

In 1913 the Legislature passed a law placing in the hands of the department full authority to establish rates for common carriers. Previously, in 1908, the Legislature had enacted a law explicitely providing what rates should be charged on twelve-ride tickets.

The attorney-general was asked if the 1913 law repealed that of 1908. He answered in the affirmative.

Sold "Bitters," Fined

Mrs. Angelina Banana was fined $200 by the Quincy district court on a charge of selling "Chinese bitters" containing 16.80 per cent alcohol. Her husband, Charles Banana, was found not guilty on a similar complaint. The wife appealed.

TAKE PHOSPHATE WITH MEALS IN SUMMER-TIME

Your Nerves Demand It, Your Blood Needs It, Say Physicians

There's not enough phosphorus in modern foods to benefit nearly one-half of the men and women of America, scientists declare.

To overcome this lack of an element of your body that is necessary to your health, your happiness and even your success in life, weak, anaemic, nervous, run-down people are advised to take Bitro-Phosphate as dispensed in leading drug stores in the original package.

Speaking of people who are easily fatigued, who lack ambition, nerve and are ofttimes thin, weak and sadly lacking in firm, healthy flesh, Joseph D. Harrigan, formerly Visiting Specialist North Easton Dispensary, N. Y., says: "Patients who were apparently physical wrecks, who foolishly thought they needed only a blood tonic to enrich the blood, have come for treatment trembling and shaking, their nerve force almost exhausted, and in many such cases the administering of Bitro-Phosphate has produced seemingly magical results."

People who feel the heat of Summer, tire easily and often become irritable and depressed, will find Bitro-Phosphate an inexpensive and helpful friend.

Druggists report a wonderful increase in the demand from men and women who are anxious to renew old-time ambition and who are making an honest effort to become vigorous and keen-minded, with a power of endurance that denotes almost perfect health.

They ask for Bitro-Phosphate because they know they need an inexpensive organic phosphate.

Visits Sing Sing; His Straw Hat Stolen

Ossining, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Certain inmates of Sing Sing prison had a little practice at their old trade when Policeman John Buckley of the New York city police department donned a new straw hat and went a-visiting at the prison.

It slipped his mind that he was in Sing Sing, so he placed his straw hat on a bench and left the room for a time. On his return the straw hat was gone. All took the event as a matter of course except the policeman. Warden Lewis C. Lawes said he could not assure visitors against loss save when they came on official business.

CAMBRIDGE GIRL DRINKS POISON

Attempts Suicide in Detroit After Married "Fiance" Appears in Court

Detroit, Mich., August 19.—Following the arraignment in the Federal Court here of John W. Graham, charged with violating the Mann Act, Miss Marie Howland, aged twenty-three, of Cambridge, Mass, whom it is charged he brought to this city from her Bay State home, attempted to kill herself by drinking poison. She was treated at a hospital and released.

It is charged that Graham, twenty years the girl's senior, after arriving in this city with her, broke his promise to divorce his wife and wed the girl. He is alleged to have told her that his love for his wife had returned. The defendant's wife is trying to raise $1,000 bonds for him.

GIRL WINS $10 BY EATING ELEVEN PIES

Providence, R. I., Aug. 19.—The Scituate Old Home observance was a success, its directors declared today, in spite of unfavorable weather conditions. Several hundred persons attended the exercises on the Providence County Fair Grounds. Lizzie Bowen won a $10 prize for eating eleven blueberry pies. Addresses were given by Lieutenant-Governor Sans Souci and Rev. Ernest V. Claypool.

FOUND GERMANS STILL LOYAL TO THE KAISER

"German people are as loyal as ever to the Kaiser and also are in sympathy with the Russian Bolsheviki," declared Lieutenant-Colonel Fred G. 'WET' CONGRESS IS FEARED

Wheeler Warns Prohibition Advocates Against Being Over-Confident

By International News Service.

Washington, Aug. 19.—A "wet" Congress may be elected next Fall unless prohibition advocates awaken to the "Danger of over-confidence," Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-saloon League, warned today.

More than 100 candidates for election to Congress are "wet," Wheeler stated, and fourteen associations are engaged in carrying out "a program of nullification of the prohibition law."

In the race for the Senate there are a number of candidates who are running upon a "wet" platform, Wheeler declared, mentioning "Brandegee of Connecticut, Phelan of California, Penrose of Pennsylvania and Wadsworth of New York."

How to Make Your Own Complexion Treatment at Home

A Free Oatmeal Prescription Does Its Work Overnight.

New York—"It is my own discovery, and it takes just one night to get such marvelous results," says Mae Edna Wilder, when her friends ask her about her wonderful complexion and the improved appearance of her hands and arms. "You can do the same thing if you follow my advice," she says. "I feel it my duty to tell every girl and woman what this wonderful prescription did for me. Just think of it. All this change in a single night! I never tire of telling others just what brought about such remarkable results. Here is the identical formula that removed every defect from my face, neck, hands and arms. Until you try it you can form no idea of the marvelous change it will make in just one application. The prescription which you can prepare at your own home is as follows: Go to any grocery and get 10c worth of ordinary oatmeal, and from any department or drug store a bottle of Derwillo. Prepare the oatmeal as directed in every package of Derwillo. Before applying Derwillo cleanse the skin thoroughly with a good cleansing cream. (Liska cold cream I have found to be the best). The first application will astonish you. It makes the skin appear transparent, smooth and velvety. I especially recommend it for dark, sallow skin, shiny nose, freckles, tan, sun spots, coarse pores, rough skin, ruddiness, wrinkles and, in fact, every blemish the face, hands and arms are heir to. If your neck or chest are discolored from exposure, apply this combination there and the objectionable defect will disappear as if by magic. It is absolutely harmless and will not produce or stimulate a growth of hair. Since short sleeves are in vogue it is necessary to have beautiful hands and arms and no matter how rough and ungainly the hands and arms, or what abuses they have had through hard work and exposure to sun and wind, this combination will work a wonderful transformation. Thousands who are using it report the same results I have had."

Miss O. C. says: "My complexion was poor and my skin rough. My neck, chest, hands and arms were dark from exposure. The very first application of this wonderful Derwillo-oatmeal combination convinced me that my poor complexion and skin blemishes would soon be a thing of the past. In a few weeks all these unsightly defects had entirely disappeared and I shall always use it to keep my complexion at its best all the time. I have recommended it to my girl friends and they are just as enthusiastic over it as I am. We all use it before going to the theatre, dances or parties and it's wonderful what a difference it makes in our appearance."

Mrs. G. V. writes: "Oatmeal and Derwillo have worked miracles with my complexion. I had many despised wrinkles and a sallow, rough skin. My hands and arms were covered with freckles. After eight weeks' use of Mae Edna Wilder's wonderful complexion prescription these objectionable defects have entirely vanished. I look ten years younger and advise every girl and woman to try it and I feel confident after one or two applications they will use it continually and be just as favorably impressed with it as I am. I recommend it to all of my friends."

NOTE—to get the best effect be sure to follow the complete directions contained in every package of Derwillo, and it is so simple that anyone can use it, and so inexpensive that any girl or woman can afford it. Department stores and druggists guarantee that there will be a noticeable improvement after the first application or they will refund the money. It is sold in Boston and vicinity at all toilet counters under a money refund guarantee.

WILSON SENDS GREETINGS TO LATIN PRESIDENTS

Washington, Aug. 19.—Exchanges of felicitations between President Wilson and the President of Ecuador upon the celebration of the independence on August 10 were made public by the State Department. A message from President Wilson to the President of Paraguay upon the occasion of his inauguration August 15 also was made public.

60 BOAT LINES ASK FREIGHT RATE BOOST

Washington, Aug 19.—The United States Shipping Board opened a hearing on the petitions of sixty steamship lines that seek an increase in the freight rates corresponding with those granted steamship lines under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Great Lakes, gulf and coastwise lines are included in the companies.

U. S. SPIES GET SOVIET SECRETS

By Universal Service.

Paris, Aug. 19.—That A. M[illegible] Palmer, Attorney-General of the United States is the head of a vast underground organization of international intelligence agents was learned by Universal Service today through a diplomatic source.

Despite Washington's proclaimed policy of "hands off Europe," an army of American detectives has been busy since the armistice gathering data by which, it is stated, it hopes to begin world-wide propaganda to combat the Moscow government.

Several of the cleverest of the operatives, one of whom distinguished himself in the capture of the Zimmermann note to Mexico, by which Germany tried to get that country into war with the United States, actually penetrated into Russia by means of "crooked" documents purporting to come from Red leaders in the United States. This group apparently had unlimited funds at its disposal.

Four other agents, it is stated were "deported" from the United States on the boat which took Emma Goldman and other anarchists back to Russia. These four were listed as "undesirable anarchists."

They attempted to gain the confidence of Lenine, Trotsky [illegible] and other leaders of the Bolshevist government.

During more than a year of operations, the secret agents successfully sent to the United States a mass of documents purporting to describe the inner workings of Communism, particularly in Moscow, Petrograd, Novgorod, Vilna, Kief and other large centers, as seen through American eyes.

Clamp on "Dry" Lid Tighter in N. Y.

By Universal Service.

New York, Aug 19.—The lid of [illegible]ight was fastened pretty [illegible] never to come off, on New York today.

There was a boom in bootleg cheer. Prices hitherto ruling at from 50 cents to 75 cents "per copy" bulled their way up to $1.50 and even $2 per imbibe.

Chief Shevlin declared today that as a result of the conference he has just had with Prohibition Commissioner Kramer in Washington some missing rivets have been bolted into place. "It is going to be harder than ever to withdraw whiskey from bond.

"It will be hard to get under our system," said Shevlin.

FREIGHT CAR DELAYS WILL BE PENALIZED

Heavy penalties for delays in handling open-top and all other freight cars containing coal and coke were effected throughout the country today in an attempt to expedite freight movements. The penalties will be made in addition to the usual freight and demurrage charges and will be at the rate of $10 a day for each day's delay after the first forty-eight hours.

Caring for Baby During Hot Spells

THE young mother soon learns from experience that summer days are often days that try her patience. The heat makes baby peevish, restless and cross. Foods that in colder weather were easily digested, now seem to cause distress.

Whether the milk or the gruel is at fault, see that the bowels move regularly. There is nothing that creates greater discomfort in the summer than constipation. It heats the blood and causes nervousness, headache, fever, colds and a host of minor ills. In these little ailments it is always well to suspect constipation and give half a teaspoonful of Dr Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, and the most ideal medicine you can give a baby. It is mild and gentle in action, never gripes and tastes good.

Mothers have had remarkable success with Syrup Pepsin. Mrs. C. M Newton of 2430 E. Third St., Dayton, Ohio. has a son who was constipated from birth. She tried many medicines and gave warm water injections every evening for weeks, without benefit. Then she bought a bottle of Dr Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at a drug store, and it proved effective at once. The boy is now seven, and has not been constipated since. Wherever there is a baby these hot days there should be a bottle of Syrup Pepsin.

FREE Millions of people of all ages suffer from occasional or chronic constipation. Let them send name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 512 Washington Street, Monticello, Ill., for a free sample bottle of his wonderful Syrup Pepsin. 8 million bottles were bought at drug stores last year, the largest sale in the world.

"The Fighting 39th"
Routs the High Price Enemy

THIS August Furniture Sale now in its third record-breaking week is Moller's 39th Annual Sale.

Reductions are so radical that our salesmen, accustomed as they are to lower prices, are frankly amazed. They have labeled the Sale—"The Fighting 39th." The fight is on the high prices that have kept many young people from happiness in homes of their own, many, many women from the things they need to freshen-up old homes.

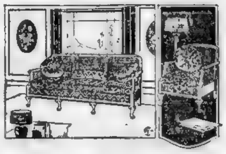
By buying at the "Fighting 39th Sale" with its lowest in history prices, and by using your credit at Moller's you have a furniture opportunity without a precedent, and without the possibility of an equal for some time to come.



3-Piece Living Room Suite, upholstered in lovely mulberry and gold figured velour. Of course, cane backs and sides. The kind you have your heart set on, because you know cane bespeaks good taste and good furniture. "39th" Sale Price $595.00

4-Piece Bedroom Suite, in the much wanted ivory finish, Dresser, Bed, Chiffonier and Dressing Table. "39th" Sale Price $189.50

Handsome Silk Shade Floor Lamps, from $22.50 upward.

"Follow the crowd" on Thursday and Saturday evenings and you'll find yourself at Moller's. Closed Wednesdays at 12:30 P. M. during August and September.

O'DOWD PLANS TO FORCE WILSON INTO RETURN BOUT FOR TITLE

WILL FIGHT WAY BACK TO TOP

Former Middleweight Champion Sure He Can Win Over All Comers

By JACK CONWAY.

Mike [illegible] has adopted the right [illegible] a return bout with [illegible] Wilson, the proud boss of [illegible] middleweights. When the average title holder loses his championship he goes around telling everybody that he was robbed and does not bother fighting a great deal. The public does not care a whole lot of listening to the screeches of a loser, while it soon forgets a ring warrior who does not show [illegible] wares frequently.

O'Dowd has dealt precedent a severe [illegible] stepping forth and meeting [illegible] comers. Since losing to Wilson in St. Paul [illegible] boxing steadily. What [illegible] [illegible]

Paddy Mullins, who directs O'Dowd's ring affairs, believes that [illegible] And when [illegible] pass Mullins has no doubt that O'Dowd's [illegible] will enable him to smash his way to victory.

O'Dowd Still Great Favorite With Fans

Even though he is stripped of the championship, O'Dowd is still a great drawing card [illegible] New England [illegible] fact there are many [illegible] who are of the opinion that [illegible] the decision to Wilson [illegible] middleweight [illegible] There are a [illegible] goodly [illegible] New England [illegible] is the world's [illegible] crown that goes with the championship.

Robson Has Chance to Beat O'Dowd

At Johnny Cuddy's Lawrence arena Saturday the fans will be able to determine for themselves whether O'Dowd [illegible] his ambition of winning back [illegible] The St. Paul man is to meet Tommy Robson of Malden, a [illegible] Robson is a strong, rugged fellow with a punch and will [illegible] a severe test. When champion O'Dowd refused to meet Robson, maybe he figured he could [illegible] the Malden man, but he didn't wish to take any chances of bumping into a wild right-hand swing.

When [illegible] Jackson stopped Johnny [illegible] in [illegible] Philadelphia several years ago he proved that the best of them will take the count if hit hard enough and on the right spot. So O'Dowd probably wisely decided that it was best to leave well enough alone. Now that he is out to convince the world that he is the class of the middleweights O'Dowd agreed to meet Robson.

He may be unable to overcome Tommy's right, but unless he can do so he would not care to meet Wilson again. O'Dowd also is as confident of winning Saturday as he is that he will trounce Wilson if the latter consents to meet him again.

Strong Preliminary Card for Brockton Show

Billy Goodrich of the Fairington A. A. of Brockton [illegible] preliminary card for his open air show at [illegible] Saturday afternoon. [illegible] of Brockton will clash with [illegible] of Boston in the semi-final of eight rounds, while Barney McAtee of South Boston will oppose [illegible] of Brockton in another eight session affair. Edmund [illegible] of Brockton will have [illegible] of Weymouth as an opponent in a six round [illegible]

Harry Carlson and [illegible] are busy completing training for their twelve round encounter. The meeting between these two has stirred up more interest in Brockton than any contest arranged for the Shoe City fans in years. [illegible] has had a brilliant run of twenty two victories and [illegible] of the opinion he will be able to dispose of Carlson. The latter is a veteran campaigner and avers that when all has been said and done he will be out front.

Danny Ridge to Only Battle Lightweights

George Perry called at the American office today to announce that Danny Ridge is open to meet any lightweight in New England. Ridge was obliged to box a welterweight in his New England debut, said Perry. Billy Woods outweighed Ridge by at least twelve pounds. Despite this handicap in weight the Manchester fighter [illegible] Against men of his own poundage Ridge is sure to run up a creditable array of victories."

CORNETS 3-1 VICTORS OVER LITHOGRAPHERS

The Cornets of Lynn defeated Forbes Lithograph team 3 to 1 at Little River [illegible] the [illegible] run being scored in the seventh inning when [illegible] with Metzaffer on base. When [illegible] in the seventh it was the first time Cornets have been scored on in thirty seven innings.

BUGS BAER'S COLUMN

BEAUTY ON THE BEACH

Only one bathing suit restriction down at Nantasket this season. The sweet birds must wear shoes.

The California one-sheet bathing frocks are being imported. The railroads are not responsible for any suits lost in transit. But it doesn't make any difference to the sweet stuff if her bathing suit doesn't arrive. Time and tide wait for no woman. Why bundle yourself up in a stuffy swimming gown that weighs at least two ounces and a button.

This only includes the gals with the chorus figures. The bow-legged gals don't swim in the Summer. They go to the mountains and play croquet. You never see a bowlegged gal on the beach. The reason why nobody ever sees a bowlegged girl on the beach is because nobody ever looks at 'em.

A [illegible] gifted with second sight might be able to spot a gal with a shape like a horse collar, but he would take one look and say the second sight for the sweet doll who leaps from magazine cover to magazine cover.

Anyway all the bowlegged sisters are in the White Mountains and the Appalachians and the Vanderelins have the beach to themselves. They are packing 'emselves up in one piece bath frocks. Down at Newport most of the dress material is carried in a one-piece parasol. At Revere Beach the society debutantes don't wear much that doesn't classify under the head of dermatology.

The firm of [illegible] are making the bathing gowns this season. The eighteen-karat [illegible] eclaire [illegible] the gal at Atlantic City [illegible] the beach in a blacksmith's apron.

Jermain Shows Way to Run Golf Tourneys

By ROBERT E. HARLOW.

Anyone wishing to obtain information as to how to properly conduct a golf championship should apply to S. P. Jermain of the Inverness Golf Club, Toledo, Ohio. Jermain has the recipe, as all the contestants, newspaper correspondents and spectators who attended the open championship will attest.

Jermain is the whole thing in Toledo golf. He started the Inverness club some years ago and has brought it through trials and tribulations until it is one of the finest in the world. At the same time Jermain made Inverness [illegible] Toledo [illegible] working folks of the [illegible] city to enjoy the sport.

What Jermain Was Responsible for

A golf tournament never was conducted as well as the one at Inverness. [illegible] against Jermain [illegible]

1—He had the course in perfect condition for the championship. Not a single player could find any fault with it.

2—He had the complete confidence of all members of Inverness, who did [illegible] without hesitation. His word was the law out there.

3—He induced [illegible] members to [illegible] taxicab drivers for the tournament days and had more than 100 automobiles marked "Inverness Golf Club official car." These automobiles ran from Toledo hotels to Inverness and return, and were always at the disposal of players and newspaper men. There was no charge. A car was always handy.

4—He went around from morning until night asking players and correspondents if there was anything he could do for them.

5—He had the golf enthusiasts of the district so well educated to the duties of being members of a golf gallery that the crowd behaved better than at any other tournament.

Added 40 Entries to Long List

6—He induced the officials of the U. S. G. A. to accept [illegible] entries of more than forty golfers who for one reason or another failed to get their names in at the appointed hour. This made it possible for many young fellows to play who otherwise would have had long railroad journeys for nothing.

7—He distributed contestants' badges and press badges to the proper people and gave each man more than he was entitled to in the way of locker room accommodation and restaurant service.

8—He had erected a special championship scoreboard [illegible] correspondents and visitors to read easily the scores of the players. This board was so [illegible] that newspaper men had [illegible] on which was directly in front of the score sheets.

9—He saw that reasonable requests were quickly attended to.

10—When the days' play had been completed he [illegible] players and correspondents [illegible] at the telegraph office [illegible] make sure that everybody was [illegible]

Seeks International Team Match

He was so efficient that the following story was told concerning him. A New York newspaper man said to a Boston correspondent:

"Did you hear that Mr. Jermain got awfully sore this morning?"

"No. What about?"

"He asked one of the Philadelphia newspaper men if there was anything he could do for him and the Philadelphian told him that everything was fine."

Jermain is anxious to have the international team match which is to be played in 1921 contested at Inverness, and if those who attended the open had voting power Inverness would get all the votes.

COAST CHAMPION IS WINNER

Miss Helen Baker of San Francisco Defeats Mrs. A. A. Shurtleff of Longwood

Miss Helen Baker of San Francisco, Pacific coast champion, reached the semi-final round of the Longwood women's singles tournament by defeating Mrs. A. A. Shurtleff on the turf courts at Longwood. Miss Florence Ballin of New York improved with the progress of her match with Miss Phyllis Walsh of Philadelphia and won in three sets.

Mrs. George W. Wightman, national singles champion, made the draw last night for the mixed doubles tournament, which contains the entries of twenty teams. Play will begin at 3:30 [illegible] the turf courts at Chestnut Hill and efforts will be made to complete two rounds.

Pete me boy:

If you ever did have a doubt in your peppy old soul as to how Camel cigarettes stand nationally, take a fly around the country! Great Scott, every time I drop an eye around I see men smoking Camels, buying Camels or talking Camels! Every newspaper and magazine flashes Camel ads! Every billboard stages a Camel scream!

Pete, you never will beat Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos. Sure does put it over either kind smoked straight! And say, boy, do you get that mild, mellow Camel body! Oh gee, Pete, fire up another Camel—that's the answer from Key West to Puget Sound!

Unhook an ear: I'm going to draw up some Camel ads and shoot 'em in! I'll tell the world about Camels! Bet I can clean up on a job like that—and it's all inspiration from Camels themselves! For instance, I'm slapping this sketch below to put you wise! Sav-vy? "I'll tell 'em, old pencil, I see the point!"

I'll drop you a line from Chicago and spill s'more! I'll have a scuttle of stunts by the time this breeze blows into Boston!

And, I'll say it—you know—

10,000 Metre Proves Hard Test for Yankees—Our Athletes Still Lead

By "TED" MEREDITH,

American Quarter and Half-Mile Champion and Famous Olympic Winner.

Antwerp, Aug. 19.—Running with perfect stride and taking the hurdles with such ease that it almost seemed that they weren't there, Earl Thomson, running under the colors of Canada, won the 110-metre hurdle race, clipping one-fifth of a second from the world's and Olympic records. The new mark is 14 4-5 seconds. Thomson established it with ease. He finished a good eight feet in front of H. E. Barron of Philadelphia, who ran his mightiest and got his place honors by an eyelash.

But though Canada gained the thrill which went with the most spectacular event of the day, the American athletes were heard from in substantial fashion. They picked up thirty-two points, finishing the day with 100½. Sweden's fifteen-point gain, the second greatest of the day, gave that country a standing of [illegible]8½. Finland gained twelve points and stands second in the standing for the four days with 46. Sweden is third, England with 25 is fourth. The other nations are France 12, South Africa, Canada and Italy 7 each and New Zealand, Norway and Esthonia 3 each.

F. W. Faller, of the Dorchester Club, Boston, was the only American to qualify for the 10,000-metre run.

A Patsoni the Indian from Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kas., quit.

Four Americans qualified for the pole vault. They are E. E Myers, Chicago A. A.; F. K Foss, Chicago A. A., E. J. Jenne, Washington State College and E. E. Knovrek, Illinois A. C. Chicago.

Finns Have Own Way in Shotput

Finland had more or less its own way in the shot put. Porkela, the star entry, sent the iron ball 14 81 metres, just sixty-five centimetres farther than the second best put, which was by his fellow Finn, Riklander. H. B. Niversedge of the navy and Pat McDonald of the New York Athletic Club, won third and fourth for the Stars and Stripes.

The broad jump went to Peterson, a rangy Swede, who leaped 7.15 metres from the takeoff, six centimeters (about 2 inches) ahead of the best efforts of C. E. Johnson of Michigan, who got second. The others were Abrahamson, Sweden, third; R. L. Templeton of Leland Stanford University, fourth; Ansted, Norway, fifth, and Frankuson, Sweden, sixth.

The 10,000 metre walk brought joy and sorrow to the American camp. J. B. Pearman of the New York A. C., though distanced by the Italian, Frigerio, who won, was comfortably ahead of the others for second place. T. A. Maroney, also of New York, hooked sixth place for a point. The disappointing phase was the injury to Plant of New York. He suffered a groin strain that may put him out of the games.

Ryan Qualifies, so Does McGrath

Patrick J Ryan and Mat McGrath of New York, Bennett of Chicago and J. H. McEchearn of San Francisco qualified in the sixteen-pound hammer event. What McGrath will be able to do in the final is doubtful. He is suffering from a strained knee. It undoubtedly shortened his trial throw, and will probably do so in the finals. It may prove too serious to permit his going to the field for the 56-pound weight event. But in Ryan the Americans have almost a guarantee of first. He is a whale, and he is agile. He wasn't working himself full out when he landed first, with 52.83 metres.

Four Americans will go to the scratch in the finals of the 3000-metre steeplechase. The men are Michael Devanney, Millrose A. A., Patrick Flynn, Paulist A. C.; R. B. Watson, Kansas State Agricultural, and Al Hulsebach, Paulist A. C.

Nat Pendleton, a light heavyweight wrestler, A. M. Weyand and E. E. Wilkie, heavyweights, were eliminated in the wrestling in preliminary bouts.

The United States entered four men in the 1500-metre event and three of them—Joie Ray, Chicago; J. J. Connelly, Boston, and M. L. Shields, Philadelphia—qualified.

Meredith Shows Some Old Time Speed

By JACK VEIOCK.

Antwerp, Aug 19.—James E. "Ted" Meredith, famous American middle distance runner, proved here today that he has some of his old-time speed left when he qualified in his first trial at the 400-metre run and then again placed in this event in the semi-final.

He will be one of the four Americans to start in the final tomorrow. Three other Americans opened the day by placing in the trials and semi-finals of this event.

They are Frank J. Shea, U. S. Navy; R. S. Emery, Chicago A. A., and G. S. Schiller, Los Angeles A. A.

The worst weather for the present Olympics greeted the athletes today. The air was decidedly muggy.

CARL MAYS SAYS HE WILL STICK

Pitcher to Remain in Baseball; Says Death of Chapman Was Accident

New York, Aug 19.—In a statement just issued Pitcher Carl Mays of the New York Yankees reiterates his protestations of innocence of any attempt to injure Ray Chapman, the dead shortstop of the Cleveland team. He also announces his intention to remain in major league baseball.

The owners of the Yankees have asserted they will back their star as far as they are able. Mays is a university man, of an intelligence higher than the average, and analyses his position very clearly.

"Any man who believes a pitcher would deliberately throw a ball at another's head in a ball game is foolish," said Mays. "Even if such a thing were done, it is difficult for me to see how that pitcher could believe he would hit the man at whom he was aiming.

Says Chapman Failed to Dodge the Ball

"I know, and so does anyone who gives the matter serious thought, that poor Chapman was killed because he didn't get out of the way of a ball that was practically certain to hit him. He crowded the plate. That was expected of him because there were runners on the bases and he was doing his best to score them. The ball that hit him was a fast one, not a curve. A slight move would have saved Chapman.

"My grief over the accident is great, but it is something which could not be helped. I intend to remain in baseball and show the fans that the things which have been said of me are either malicious or ill advised."

Mays' Unpopularity Cause of Attack

Veteran fans and baseball experts declare that Mays is the target for so much attack because of his unpopularity as a ball player. Any other pitcher would have received only sympathy from everyone. Last year, when Mays was a member of the Boston Red Sox, feeling between him and the fans became so strained that Mays threw a baseball into the grand stand and walked off the field, refusing to pitch for the Red Sox any more. This episode precipitated a controversy which lasted the remainder of the year.

RACING REVIVAL AT WESTFIELD PLANNED

Westfield, Aug. 19.—Sporting men of Westfield are planning to raise $50,000 for the purpose of reviving Short Ship racing at Woronoco driving park. The track is still in fair condition, they claim, and the park would be a big paying proposition if put back in the circuit.

The movement is backed by Charles Terret of this town, one of the best known racing men in Western Massachusetts. Others are interested and planning formation of a stock company to reopen the once popular track.

HYLAND AND McGRAIL IN CADDIES' FINAL

Morris Hyland and J. McGrail meet tomorrow to settle the caddies' championship at the Country Club. Hyland won his way into the finals by defeating J. Lally, 1 up, while McGrail arrived by winning from J. Cooney, 3 and 1.

SPORT EDITORIAL

WHEN there are two strikes on the batter, you hear the coacher yelling, encouragingly:

He means that the batter has a final chance to hit the ball. The players call this chance the "big one." The batter has swung twice and missed, or has had two strikes called on him by the umpire. But the batter has the "big one" left.

A good hitter is little disturbed by two misses. The "big one" still remains; he is all the more keyed up by his failures. Sometimes he may have a fleeting regret for letting a couple of good opportunities go by without offering at them, only to hear them called strikes by the umpire, but the "big one" is left.

There is a whole sermon in the expression.

Many a man steps up to the old home plate of life and takes a couple of heavy wallops at what he considers good chances and misses 'em. Maybe he stands idly by, and lets them be called against him. In any event he finds himself in the same situation, with two strikes on him.

Only too often a man in that situation becomes discouraged. He feels that life, the pitcher, has him "in a hole." He either takes a half-hearted swing at the next offering, or again stands there glum, and downhearted, without moving a muscle while the umpire yells: "You're out!"

He might better take courage, and remember that he has the "big one" left.

Another opportunity is coming over, and if he keeps himself keyed up, stout hearted and expectant, he may hit it into the stands for a home run.

Timid batters in life, as well as in baseball, are always at a disadvantage. If they permit themselves to become discouraged over a couple of failures, they will never be ready for the "big one."

Take a tighter grip on the bat, crowd the plate a little closer, watch the pitcher carefully, and try to determine whether the next offering is going to be to your liking. Never mind the two strikes—

Hold Chapman Funeral Services Tomorrow

Cleveland, O., Aug. 19.—Funeral services for Ray Chapman, star infielder and shortstop of the Cleveland Indians, will be held tomorrow morning at St. Philemon's Catholic Church, Euclid and Wesley avenues, East Cleveland. At the special request of the relatives, the body of the ball-player, who died Tuesday morning as the result of being hit by a pitched ball in New York on Monday, will not lie in state.

The body arrived this morning from New York and was met at the grimy old Union Station by hundreds of fans, men and women. Many wept as the casket was rolled from the train to the waiting hearse.

Tris Speaker and Joe Wood of the Cleveland team accompanied the body here. James C. Dunn, president of the Cleveland club, is here for the funeral. He has started a movement to erect a bronze tablet to the memory of Chapman at the entrance to the ball park. Mayor Fitzgerald has appointed a committee to take charge of a subscription for a memorial.

PLAN BIG WELCOME FOR WORCESTER MARKSMAN

Worcester, Aug 19.—Worcester plans to give a royal welcome to Jay Clarke, Jr., and his team of American trapshooters who "cleaned up" for America in the Olympic games. Captain Clarke of the American team is a Worcester citizen and the city is indeed proud of him. Mayor Peter F. Sullivan has appointed a committee to arrange for the reception, which will probably be held early in September. The team has recently returned home from Antwerp.

ANOTHER TWILIGHT GAME AT CONCORD

The strong Concord Junction baseball club will play another twilight game tomorrow evening clashing for the second time this season with the Packard Motor Company nine, on the Concord Junction playground, at 6 o'clock.

Dean Leads Field

N. W. Dean of Oakley led the field in the medal handicap tournament held by the University Club of Boston on the Clyde Park links. His card read: 86-6-80.

Home Run Baker May Rejoin Yankees

Baltimore, Md., Aug 19.—According to word received here today from his home at Easton, Md., J. Franklin Baker, former home-run king, may rejoin the New York Yankees.

Baker will leave for New York today "merely to see a few games," but friends of Baker declare his sympathy is with the New York team.

"Frank doesn't talk much," say these friends of the Maryland farmer, "but we believe he will be seen in a Yankee uniform before very long."

GIANTS PAY $12,000 FOR TORONTO PITCHER

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 19.—The sale of Pitcher Pat Shea to the New York Nationals has been announced by the management of the local International League team. The price paid has been reported as $12,000.

SOUTH BOSTON STARS DEFEAT ARLINGTON

The South Boston All-Stars won from the Arlington Town Team, 14 to 1, at the M street playground. The visitors offered little resistance, South Boston gathering sixteen hits in seven innings of play. Ware, with four drives in five trips, was the heavy-sticker of the exhibition.

Top Tie at Duxbury

The mixed foursome held at the Duxbury Golf Club as part of the Midsummer Week celebration resulted in a tie for first honors, Mrs. H. B. Stebbins and W. T. Glidden (19) and Miss Frances Stebbins and J. B. Reed, Jr. (11) turning in cards of 66.

EVER SEEKING NEW PLAYERS

Major Leagues' Quest After Young Talent Keener Than Ever This Season

By HUGH S. FULLERTON.

Major league managers and owners corral promising young ball players corral promisin gyoung ball players this Summer than ever before. In spite of the fact that the pennant races are yet far from decided, every club in the majors has been buying youngsters wholesale and retail. The small minor leagues, on top of a fairly prosperous season, are selling players wholesale, the semi-pros, the independents and the college teams have furnished larger quotas than is usual.

The crop of players from the Class A A leagues is extremely small and poor, not more than six or seven of their players are in demand, most of these already having been sold or optioned. According to the scouts neither the Association nor the International has produced any players worthy of major rank this year, with the exception of those placed with them by the majors this Spring.

Recruits Will Lack Real Training.

The great prosperity of the majors this season and the hope that the prosperity will continue over into next year is causing the owners to bestir themselves. A winning team means a fortune to any owner, and they realize the poor quality of their teams as at present constituted.

The material being assembled for trial this Fall after the races are over, and during the next Spring training trip, is better than it has been for a number of years. Yet the fact remains that practically every recruit will come from below Class A, which means that, regardless of their ability, they will lack in experience and in training.

It has been easier for the scouts to find players this Summer than in ordinary years. The owners evidently believe that the era of lively balls and hard hitting will continue, for the hitters are in great demand and the fast, clever fielders are a drug on the market. The chief effort appears to be to collect as many hard hitters as possible and to sacrifice some fielding skill to add to the punch of the teams.

TIGERS IN FINAL GAME TODAY

Sox Anxious to Clean Up for Big Series Against the Indians

By NICK FLATLEY

The Tigers closed their stay here today, said stopover having proved most valuable thus far to the Red Sox in their drive to get back into the first division. Three out of four times have the Jungaleers been flattened and another victory would not be a bit startling as the local entry seemed to have just a bit of an edge on the aliens.

With nothing to strive for, the Tigers do not play very serious baseball and consequently lose a lot of close games that in other days would have been easy for them. They thump the agate merrily enough, but let it go at that.

For today's pastime the natives had Bullet Joseph Bush in readiness, while plump Hubert Leonard was the hostile server. Hubert hasn't been winning many games this season, the same being true of the other Detroit heavers. Bullet Joseph has staged a first-class come back, and would be rated with the stars had he been attached to a club that was up in the going.

Myers Wins Own Game in 11th Inning

Boston fans had a chance in the fourth game of the Tiger series to get a peek at Elmer Myers, the pitcher secured recently from the Cleveland Indians. Elmer made a very fine debut, winning his game 6 to 5, and bouncing out the hit that sent over the sixth score in the eleventh chapter.

There was plenty of luck attached to the Boston victory, though. In the tenth Harry Heilman busted a long fly to left that missed clearing the fence by about a foot. The ball caromed off the highest sign in the orchard at right angles, hit the top of the next parapet, hesitated, and then decided to come back into the ball yard. There were two good chances for a homer, and both flivvered. Two being out at the time, the double didn't make any difference.

After the Tigers comes the crippled Indians for a four-day stopover which includes a double-header Saturday.

M. L. J. IS WINNER OF OLD COLONY SPECIAL

M. L. J., with J. W. Linnehan in the seat, outfooted Liberty Bell in Class B trot at the Old Colony Driving Club's special matinee, held in conjunction with the Old Colony Grocers' Association outing at South Weymouth.

There was a deal of stepping in the half-mile heats of the Class H pace which Samoset, driven by J. B. Reed, took from Barney Chatham in an ex-

K. OF C. NINES IN FOURTH BATTLE NEXT SATURDAY

The fourth game and last of the series between James J. Chittick and Mattapan Councils, K. of C. will take place on Saturday next at Norfolk street playgrounds. Winn Duffy will try to stage a comeback at the expense of the Hdye Park aggregation.

MISS DWINNELL SAILS NEOSAN TO VICTORY

Duxbury, Aug. 19.—Miss Sabina Dwinnell piloted the Neosan to victory in races for women members of the Duxbury Yacht Club conducted in Duxbury Bay. The Neosan led the 15-footers over a fifteen-mile course, while the Snipe, piloted by Mrs. E. M. Farnsworth, was first in the Baybird class over a thirteen-mile course.

REVERE TIGERS TO PLAY NORTH END K. OF C. NINE

The Revere Tigers will tackle the North End K. of C. team at Curtis Park next Sunday. They would like a twilight game at home for Friday night, also a game at home or away from home for next Saturday afternoon.

CUBS BUY SOUTHPAW PITCHER FROM OMAHA

Chicago, Aug 19.—Pitcher Oscar Fuhr of the Omaha, Nebraska, club of the Western League has been bought by the Chicago Nationals. He is a southpaw.

A Good Reason

"[illegible] don't you?" she asked flashing slightly.

"The reason I haven't," he said, "is because I'm in love with you."

She was standing with head bent, but now she looked up quickly.

"[illegible] adorable infant!" she [illegible] really [illegible] she added [illegible] good [illegible] the [illegible] business [illegible] glad [illegible] in love with me. [illegible] such an important part of [illegible] life that, naturally, I in[illegible] you.

He met Grismer here and there in the artistic channels of the city, often in Stephanie's studio, frequently in other studios and occasionally amid gatherings at restaurants, theatres, art galleries.

No Intimates

At first he had been civil but cool, avoiding any tete-a-tete with his old school-fellow. But little by little he became aware of several things which slightly influenced his attitude toward Grismer.

[illegible] thing became plain: the man [illegible] intimates. There was not a [illegible] he had met who seemed to care very much for Grismer; he seemed to have no frank and cordial friendships among men or pals. Yet he was considered clever and amusing. Where people gathered he interested many [illegible] evoking their personal sympathy; he interested women [illegible] with his [illegible] good [illegible] and the light [illegible] qualities of his intelligence.

Always amiably suave, graceful of movement, alert and considerate of feminine fancies, moods and caprices, he was welcomed everywhere [illegible] in the [illegible] he sauntered into. But he was nowhere accepted by men.

CHAPTER XLVIII.—Continued

When he had [illegible] he sought John Brandon and noted with compassion that Barbara's lover was standing [illegible] of the drawing room [illegible] to appear interested in the conversation of a girl who just now had no partner.

Another Generation.

"And John cannot ask her to dance because he belongs to [illegible] generation that knows nothing of the fox trot and one step," [illegible] thought ruefully. "He cannot even dance with Bab. Hard lines!"

Crossing the room he addressed his friend.

"[illegible] and I are going home. You and Barbara stay as long as you like."

"[illegible] let me drive you back," John begged.

It was almost as if he hailed an opportunity to absent himself for a quarter-hour from the festive scene. Arnot was rather sorry that he had not made it possible for John to have this brief respite. But he did not give words to this thought.

"No, indeed, my dear fellow! I have already ordered a taxi. It must be here by now. Good night."

Five minutes later Arnot [illegible] and his sister were on their way home.

The wily spinster had prepared the way for John to ask Barbara to set the date for the wedding. If Barbara's relatives were present this would not be convenient. [illegible] had engineered affairs successfully so far. She wanted to complete her work and rest in triumph.

What she had anticipated happened.

"How good the air feels!" she exclaimed. "[illegible] glad to get out here where [illegible] in my face."

"You had a pleasant evening, did you, dear?" John questioned solicitously.

She Sets the Date.

He would not let her suspect how much bored he had been, nor how old he felt when he was with people as young as those composing tonight's company.

"Yes," she replied. "I had a pleasant evening. The Greenwoods were awfully kind to have that nice affair for me—and everybody was lovely.

"Yet I am a bit tired from dancing. But you are not," with a little laugh.

"No," John attempted a laugh also. "It is too bad that I do not dance. Perhaps some time you will teach me."

"I will," she said, "if you want to learn."

Inwardly she was wondering how John Brandon would look dancing. It would be hard for him to begin again after all these years.

"Darling," driving very slowly as he put the question that meant happiness or disappointment to him, "When will you marry me?"

"I want to learn if you want me to," he said. "Perhaps after we are married"—he stopped, waiting for a protest, but none came.

"When do you want me to?"

"Would," he hesitated—"next Fall be too soon?"

"If you wish it, it can be next Fall," she murmured.

She could not name an earlier date. Five months go so fast!

Cynthia was waiting up for Barbara. "Well, my dear," she asked eagerly, "is everything all right?"

"Yes," was the spiritless reply. "I am to be married in November, Aunt. But please say nothing of it yet to anyone but Uncle Arthur."

The Adventures of Ann

By HAL COFFMAN

Copyright, 1920, by [illegible] Feature Service, Inc.

The big door into Harwood's apartment opened.

CHAPTER 6.

IT had been four days since Harwood had heard from "the mysterious woman of the top floor" and he was growing impatient. Tom Harwood was not accustomed to delay in anything. He phoned to her and said: "This is Friday. By tomorrow I expect you to do what I requested. You will take [illegible] to the matinee and then bring her HERE afterward for dinner. Make up any story you like, only DO it. I am sending you some money. Now remember, I shall be expecting you."

As she hung up the receiver she sobbed: "I can't do it, I can't do it." She thought of Ann, her beauty and her innocence, and tried to picture her in Harwood's clutches.

"Oh, the beast, the beast!" she cried, as she threw herself upon the couch. Her mind wandered back to the time when she, too, had met Harwood. Hundreds of years ago, it seemed to her—for so much had happened since then. She had been about Ann's age in a small town of the Middle West. When Harwood, passing through, had seen her and won her with his dazzling wealth the rest was easy. And now was Ann going to the same fate as hers—and many, many others.

That afternoon she met Ann again. She told her she had two matinee tickets for the following day and they were going to dinner afterward.

"Won't that be lovely? I'm sure your sisters won't mind if you go." Ann assured her they would not. The next day Ann was ready long before the appointed time. Claire and Betty had agreed to let her go after talking it over. Betty thought it queer, this sudden interest in Ann by the mysterious woman of whom no one knew anything, but she finally consented after her fears had been laughed aside.

Ann was dressed in a simple little frock—about the only one she had.

This was quite an event for Ann. She seldom went to a real theatre, and now she was going to see the hit of Broadway and go to dinner afterward with some friends of her hostess. "Oh, this IS life," thought Ann, as she enjoyed every minute of the play.

* * * * * * *

After the matinee they walked along Broadway into the Forties. Ann's companion was silent, and if Ann had not been so busy looking at other things she would have noticed the tears in her eyes as she went into a large building. They were whisked up in the elevator to the top floor. All was so quiet up there it was hard to believe they had been in the seething city only a moment before. The thick, soft rugs in the hall were like velvet to Ann's feet. An unseen bird sang a little song as the big door opened into Harwood's apartment.

(What happened in Harwood's apartment? Read the next chapter of this human interest story.)

Mrs. Solomon Says—

By HELEN ROWLAND

Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

VERILY, verily, my Daughter, an INTERESTING man is the noblest work of Woman—yea of many women!

For what man knoweth any of the graces of life or acquireth the subtleties of love-making until some woman hath instructed him therein?

And what man's sentimental education is "finished" until he hath loved and been loved by several women?

Yet, alas, what profit hath a woman of all her labors? For lo, every woman spendeth her days in the training of husbands for OTHER women! And there is NO gratitude in men!

Behold, the moment one damsel hath taught a callow youth how to part his hair, and to speak when he is spoken to, he straightway hasteneth off to impress another damsel with his knowledge and his "aplomb."

One damsel teacheth a man the gentle art of flirtation—and the moment he hath acquired the rudiments thereof he is upon his way seeking to practice them upon another damsel.

One damsel leadeth him to the enchanting spot upon the beach, or the romantic corner of the garden—and, upon the next evening he tenderly leadeth another damsel thereto.

One damsel polisheth his finger nails—and straightway he departeth to hold another damsel's hands.

One woman teacheth him that he possesseth a HEART—and before she hath half finished he is off offering his heart to another woman.

One woman spendeth ten years in making a man of him—and another woman taketh ten minutes to make a fool of him.

Verily, verily, all the days of her life, every woman runneth a "charity bureau" for the benefit of OTHER women!

For, alas, whatsoever woman leadeth a man in the way he should go, it is always the "NEXT woman" who profiteth by her good works.

And no woman reapeth the reward of her own labors, but every woman garnereth the fruit of some other woman's labors.

For this is her consolation, that each woman, in her time, is "Next."

And have I not many times said unto thee that a man's heart is like unto a public telephone upon Saturday afternoon, or a barber shop upon Sunday morning, wherein the cry is always "NEXT!"?

Yet, I charge thee, let no woman hope to receive THANKS from those men, whom she hath rescued from darkness and callowness!

For, verily, verily, every man fancyeth himself a Perfect Work of Nature, and believeth that the Lord made him as he is!

ABOUT OUR GOOD FRIEND

Brown

Copyright, 1920, by The Ledger Syndicate

BROWN

RACIAL ORIGIN—English.

THERE is one big difference between family names and languages. Languages change inevitably, unless they be the so-called "dead" languages, preserved only in classic literature. Names may change more radically than many words.

Education and literature always exert a restraining influence on language change, because the individual, either consciously or unconsciously, associates spelling as well as sound with the meaning and also strives to keep spelling and pronunciation together, except where the latter becomes too difficult. When communities do change the pronunciation of words it is to make them easier to speak. Family names have been particularly susceptible to this sort of change, because they have lost their original significances and have become merely "tags" designating this, that or the other family. Furthermore, a man feels free to take greater liberties in the spelling of his own name than in that of "the king's English."

The name Brown, with all the foregoing variations, means "brown." At the period when the growth of population demanded something more than a given name to distinguish one individual from another there were many dark-complexioned persons who were known as "John le Brun" or "Wymarc le Broune," etc., and these words came to distinguish their children as well as themselves, though many of the children may have been blonds.

Diminutive endings and the twisting of syllables to suit individual tongues have done the rest in the course of time. Families in which tradition has run strong have preserved more of the original spellings. Others have been influenced by the change in the word denoting the color to alter the spellings of their names in accordance.

Thomas Brown, born in England in 1628, is one of the earliest ancestors of the largely represented family of Browns in America. This Brown is closely connected with the early history of Lynn, he being one of the original five families who founded the city.

The Browns, early in the history of the country, were also honorably connected, as pillars of society and founders of well-to-do and flourishing families, with Stonington and New London, Ct. The Brown mansion in the last-named city is one of the beautiful historic dwellings of the place. Coming back to the Lynn branch, it is quaint to note that Thomas Brown of Lynn, when he died, left, among larger properties, to Mary Brown, his daughter, "a pair of sheets and two pillow 'beers'." They never forgot anything in those days.

Are You Human?

A little baby. A little child. Don't they appeal to you? Doesn't your heart yearn to pick them up, to cuddle them close to you, to shield them from all harm? sure it does else you're not human. Being human you love them. Their very helplessness makes you reach out in all your strength to aid them. In health there's no flower so beautiful. In illness there's no night so black.

When sickness comes, as sickness will, remember it's just a baby, just a child and if the Physician isn't at hand don't try some remedy that you may have around the house for your own use.

Fletcher's Castoria was made especially for babies' ills and you can use it with perfect safety as any doctor will tell you. Keep it in the house.

CASTORIA

Do the People Know?

Do you know why you are asked to call for Fletcher's Castoria when you want a child's remedy: why you must insist on Fletcher's?

For years we have been explaining how the popularity of Fletcher's Castoria has brought out innumerable imitations, substitutes and counterfeits.

To protect the babies: to shield the homes and in defense of generations to come we appeal to the better judgment of parents to insist on having Fletcher's Castoria when in need of a child's medicine. And remember above all things that a child's medicine is made for children—a medicine prepared for grown-ups is not interchangeable. A baby's food for a baby. And a baby's medicine is just as essential for the baby.

The Castoria Recipe (it's on every wrapper) has been prepared by the same hands in the same manner for so many years that the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and perfection in the product are synonymous.

HARDING SMOKES PEACE PIPE

Promises Indian Visitors if Elected He Will End Their "Enslavement"

By Universal Service.

Marion, O., Aug. 19.—An unusual color was lent the daily routine of receiving front porch pilgrims, when Senator Harding was greeted by a delegation of full-blooded Indians, representatives of more than twenty famous tribes.

Arrayed in brilliant blankets and beaded moccasins, with picturesque head dress of eagle feathers, the Indians made a colorful picture as they marched up to the steps of the front porch to greet the candidate.

Senator Harding produced cigars for his guests and in turn took a few good pulls through the long "Peace Pipe" tendered him by a giant, blanketed Apache.

The delegation was led by Dr. Carlos Montezuma, a full-blooded Apache from Arizona. Montezuma was stolen from his tribe when a boy, and later sold to a traveling photographer for $13. The photographer took him to Chicago, where he studied medicine and became well-known as a specialist. Dr. Montezuma made an impassioned speech for justice to the Indian and urged Senator Harding, "when he occupied the White House," to end the "enslavement."

In his reply Senator Harding said: "The American Indian is just as much entitled to a square deal as any one else in the Republic, and if we are called to responsibility, he will get it, and I would like to think, while we are talking about democracy, and humanity, and ideals, that this Republic had far better bestow it on the native Americans, whose lands the white man took, rather than waste American lives trying to make sure of that bestowal thousands of miles across the seas."

Johnson to Start G. O. P. Campaign in East

By Universal Service.

San Francisco, Aug. 19.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson will fire the big guns of the Republican national campaign throughout the East and Middle West, beginning the first week in October, according to announcement made from western headquarters of the Republican National Committee at the Palace Hotel.

Senator Johnson will leave California in the middle of September and confer with Senator Harding and party leaders before commencing the active campaign that has been mapped out for him.

5,000 ALIENS DAILY ENTER ELLIS ISLAND

Washington, Aug. 19.—The tide of emigration which occurred after the armistice, has been more than balanced by the increasing flow of immigrants, according to an announcement by the Department of Labor. Figures compiled by the Department show that more than 5,000 immigrants are arriving daily at Ellis Island.

MAN MISSING AFTER ATTEMPTING SUICIDE

Roy A. Warren of No. 425 Shawmut avenue appealed to the police of the East Dedham street station to find his friend, John Zeis, who disappeared late Tuesday night. Warren says Zeis is suffering from mental trouble, and last Sunday he jumped off the Warren street bridge in an attempt to commit suicide. He was rescued by the bridge tenders.

Cocoanut Oil Makes a Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. Then every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and lather rinses out easily and removes any excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.

Heals Running Sores and Conquers Piles

Also Stops All Itching of Eczema Almost Immediately

"I felt it my duty to write you a letter of thanks for your wonderful Peterson's Ointment. I had a running sore on my left leg for one year. I began to use Peterson's Ointment three weeks ago and now it is healed."—A. C. Gilbraith, 703 Reed Street, Erie, Pa.

I'd rather get a letter like that, says Peterson of Buffalo, than have John D. Rockefeller give me a thousand dollars. It does me a lot of good to be able to be of use to my fellow man.

For years I have been selling through druggists a large box of PETERSON'S OINTMENT for 35 cents. The healing power in this ointment is marvelous. Eczema goes in a few days. Old sores heal up like magic; piles that other remedies do not seem to even relieve are speedily conquered.

It stops chafing in five minutes and for scalds and burns it is simply wonderful. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement.

New Way to Curl Hair Fine for Outdoor Girl

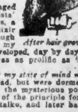
The silmerine method of curling the hair is the proper thing before going motoring, boating or golfing, or indulging in any outdoor sport or exercise. This will not only give the hair the most beautiful wavy and curly appearance imaginable, but wind or heat will not take the curl out. The curliness is quickly acquired and lasts much longer than where waving tongs are used. Besides, the hair will be bright and lustrous instead of dull and dead looking. When combed out it will be as nice and fluffy as if it had just been shampooed.

Just get a bottle of liquid silmerine at any drug or department store, follow the accompanying directions, and you will be simply delighted with the result. This product is of course perfectly harmless and there is nothing sticky, greasy or unpleasant about it.—Advertisement.

New Hair Growth After BALDNESS

On legal affidavit, John Hart Brittain, business man, certified to this: "My head at the top and back was absolutely bald. The scalp was shiny. An expert said that he thought the hair roots were extinct, and there was no hope of my ever having a new hair growth.

"Yet now, at an age over 66, I have a luxuriant growth of soft, strong, lustrous hair! No trace of baldness. The pictures shown here are from my photographs." Mr. Brittain certified further:



After hair growth.

INDIAN'S SECRET OF HAIR GROWTH

"At a time when I had become discouraged at trying various hair lotions, tonics, specialists' treatments, etc., I came across, in my travels, a Cherokee Indian 'medicine man' who had an elixir that he asseverated would grow my hair. Although I had but little faith, I gave it a trial. To my amazement a light fuzz soon appeared. It developed, day by day, into a healthy growth, and ere long my hair was as prolific as in my youthful days.

That I was astonished and happy is expressing my state of mind mildly.

Obviously, the hair roots had not been dead, but were dormant in the scalp, awaiting the fertilizing potency of the mysterious pomade.

I negotiated for and came into possession of the principle for preparing this mysterious elixir, now called Kotalko, and later had the recipe put into practical form by a chemist.

That my own hair growth was permanent has been amply proved."

How YOU May Grow YOUR Hair

It has been proved in very many cases that hair roots did not die even when the hair fell out through dandruff, fever, alopecia areata or certain other hair or scalp disorders. Miss A. D. Otto reports: "About 8 years ago my hair began to fall out until my scalp in spots was almost entirely bald. I used everything that was recommended but was always disappointed until at last I came across Kotalko. My bald spots are being covered now; the growth is already about three inches." G. W. Mitchell reports: "I had spots completely bald, over which hair is now growing since I used Kotalko." Mrs. Matilda Maxwell reports: "The whole front of my head was as bald as the palm of my hand for about 15 years. Since using Kotalko, hair is growing all over the place that was bald." Many more splendid reports from satisfied users.

PRICES HIGHER IN BOSTON

Local List Was Irregular at Start, but Quickly Improved; Curb Stocks Up

After an irregular opening the Boston market became strong, advances for the morning ranging from fractions to a point. Gains were the rule by noon. But the market was quiet and narrow. Coppers were a weak group. Prices were highest in the second hour. Three issues opened a new low for the year, they being East Butte, Mohawk and Atlas Tack. Packing issues were not dealt in to any extent and were mixed in movement. Trading was almost featureless. Local strength was in the main a reflection of the New York market.

Issues to advance a point during the forenoon were Island Creek, West End and Edison, while small gains were made by American Telephone, New Haven, United Shoe, National Leather, Eastern Manufacturing, Swift & Co. and Gray & Davis.

Old Dominion was off a point, while fractional declines were sustained by Copper Range, East Butte, Swift International and Davis Daly.

CURB GREW STRONGER.

The Curb was true to habit and had a quiet opening. While it had a heavy tone at the outset it soon improved, growing stronger during the first hour. Mutual was the early feature. It receded seven cents before mid-morning. Strong stocks at the start included Little Kingdom and Texana.

At the end of an hour Mutual was down to 93 cents and Crystal had declined 2 cents to 29 cents. Among gains were Eureka, 3 cents, at 34 cents, and Little Kingdom, 1 cent at 26 cents.

BOSTON FINANCIAL NOTES.

For the first half of this year the John T. Connor Co., which operates 275 grocery stores, earned $1.95 per share for the common after taxes and preferred dividends, which is at an annual rate of $3.18 for that issue, or three times its dividend requirement. The company's plans for the future call for 1,000 stores in Boston and suburbs.

The ore body recently opened at a depth of 2,800 feet in the Stewart shaft of the Anaconda Copper Mining Co. shows a width of ten feet of ore which will average 12 per cent. copper.

Capitalization increases by Massachusetts corporations include the following: Henry G. Sears Co., increase from $100,000 to $300,000, and the William C. Jones Co. increase from $100,000 to $650,000 consisting of 6,500 shares divided into 1,000 shares of common and 5,500 shares of preferred each having a par value of $100.

Newly chartered Massachusetts corporations include the Salisbury Beach Pavilion Co., of Lawrence, capital $150,000; the Kescot Manufacturing Co., of Boston, capital $150,000 of preferred stock and 1,500 shares of common stock of no par value; the John W. Macnpas Co., of Norwood, capital $200,000; the Mi[illegible] Consolidated, Inc., of Boston, capital $200,000; the Automotive Acceptance Corporation, of Boston capital $500,000.

Atlantic Gulf's July oil shipments totaled 1,250,000 barrels and it is said that the company is making a good profit per barrel. Its $50,000,000 oil investment program, encompasses the development of its British, French and Mexican properties and the purchase of fourteen new tankers.

Corporation Earnings

Gross earnings by the St. Louis & San Francisco road increased $1,254,701 in June, while net, which totalled $1,269,001, decreased $87,855. For six months, the increase in gross was $7,415,521 and in net $333,867.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Co. reports for the first half of this year net before federal taxes totaling $1,1[illegible], equal to $3.99 a share on 300,000 shares, against $1,240,759 or $4.13 a share in 1919. For the twelve months ended June 30, 1920, total net of $2,334,814 was equal to $7.78 a share, against $1,925,005 or $6.41 a share for twelve months ended June 30, 1919.

Gross sales for the first six months of 1920 by the Arkansas Natural Gas Co. totaled $5,153,311, against $2,123,413 for the year 1919. Net from operations for six months was $4,044,959, against $407,796 for 1919. Surplus after charges and preferred dividends was $3,041,584, against $99,886 for 1919.

Canadian Pacific gross increased $745,000 in the second week of August, while the gain from January 1 amounted to $19,079,000.

The Union Oil of Delaware reports for the six months ended June 30, 1920: Gross of $2,619,475 and net of $1,642,942; while depreciation and depletion are estimated at $495,761, federal taxes $50,000 and net $1,187,378.

Certain-teed Products Corporation has eight plants in this country and its net earning are running at the rate of more than $2,120,000 a year, which is equal to approximately $25 a share on 70,000 shares of common, after allowing for preferred dividends. This compares with $826,909 earned in 1919, available for common and preferred dividends. Surplus on June 30 last was $2,446,390, equal to $30.49 a share on outstanding common.

SUGAR SUFFERS SHARP FALL

Wall Street Closes With Many Issues Showing Net Gains for Day

BY BROADAN WALL.

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

New York, Aug. 19.—Stocks were steady, yesterday, in spite of 9 per cent. call money. The feature of the day was appearance of a surprising amount of odd-lot buying. The professionals sold freely in the morning and caused some further declines but when they went to cover discovered that stocks were not being offered freely. A leading banker said that the odd-lot buying had been enough to absorb all the professional sales.

There was extreme weakness in the commodity markets, cotton and sugar falling sharply.

The news from Poland was negative as was also that from Mexico. The real trouble with the market seemed to be the banking situation and the 9 per cent. rate. The close was steady with most issues materially above the low of the day and with a considerable number of net gains.

The break averaging six dollars in cotton options did not disturb the stock market as it might have done a few weeks ago when spinning shares were higher.

Even coffee fell sharply. Wholesale coffee is now below eight cents a pound and the housewives will soon be wondering why they pay forty and fifty cents at the groceries.

From the Wall Street point of view recent liquidation of stocks does not help much. In other years such liquidation furnished credit for the market but this year any credit so released is seized by the banks and applied to the reduction of commercial loans.

BALDWIN LEADS LIST UPWARD

Oils, Steels, Rails, Motors and Equipments Make Gains During Forenoon

By W. H. ROSS,

Financial Editor.

Stocks were strong in New York at noon, prices being near the highest level of the morning. Baldwin was the leader in the advance and made its greatest gain in the second hour. It was the most active issue. Oils, steels, rails, motors and equipments made gains, but sugars failed to retain early improvement. Punta Alegre was the weakest.

Strongest stocks included Mexican Petroleum, Pan-American and National Aniline. Trading was quiet, first hour transactions aggregating 87,000 shares. Call loans renewed at 7 per cent. Foreign exchange rates were lower at the opening, demand sterling being off half a cent, at $3.60½.

BEGAN WITH AN ADVANCE.

The market began by advancing and increased in strength during the first hour. While initial gains were not large on the average, they varied from fractions to two or more points. Atlantic Gulf and Replegle ascending the most. Before the end of an hour a gain of four was recorded for Chandler and quite a number of issues were up a point. As a group oils did the best. Recently there has been much said by bears about the attitude of the new Mexican government toward American interests south of the Rio Grande, but such talk seems to be losing effect. Steels and equipments were strong, while sugars showed considerable improvement. Rails and motors were higher, too. Aside from Marine issues the upward movement was general. It was based chiefly upon covering by short sellers. Morning reports that Warsaw had been saved from capture by Reds caused more demand for most kinds of stocks.

PUBLIC OUT OF MARKET.

The public did not figure much in the buying, however. The market retained all its professional characteristics. Baldwin was strong and active. The onslaught made by bears upon this issue during the preceding session failed in the effect intended. There was good buying on the low level yesterday and increased demand this morning. The rally in Atlantic Gulf was partly due to denial of the rumor that its management is contemplating new financing at this time.

Many traders said that the market acted as if liquidation is about over. The volume of trading has been moderate of late and rallies follow drives without any evidence of a change in the nature of buying. This indicates that the market consists of operations only by the regular trading contingent which is seeking quick profits by manipulations and is getting to be more content with small ones.

CREDIT STRAIN PASSING.

While money remains tight, it is claimed that the worst has been experienced and that the business situation has been found sounder than was hoped for. Banking interests have persistently pursued a most conservative course fon some time. It has worked temporary hardship upon many individuals and concerns, but its benefits will be realized soon in the form of an altogether easier credit situation. Bankers as a class believe that crop moving will be conducted without adding perceptibly to the strain.

Railroads Slow in Buying

The equipment buying by railroads expected after the rate increase was granted has not materialized. Roads are going to do necessary financing before ordering any more supplies than are absolutely needed now. This is having some effect upon the steel trade, and one manufacturer says: "I don't expect the railroads to buy in any volume until next Spring, and I sincerely hope they will not. We have all the business we can take care of for several months, and if any amount of railroad buying developed immediately we might experience a runaway market, with prices ascending too suddenly, which is something none of us want."

Lower Linen Price Unlikely

According to Sir Robert Liddell, Ireland's leading linen manufacturer, there is no indication that linen prices will be lower, although his country is growing more flax than in previous year. About 150,000 acres are under cultivation there. He said in New York: "Ireland produces about 100,000 tons of flax annually and 80,000 tons a year were obtained from Russia for some time. Belgium and France have fine flax crops, while Canada and East Africa are producing in quantity. We have sent trained men into East Africa to teach farmers how to raise flax."

New York Sub-Treasury Gain

New York, Aug. 19.—The sub-treasury gained $251,000 from the banks on Wednesday reducing the cash net loss since Friday to $860,000.

FOOD INCREASES UNJUSTIFIED

Figures Show New Freight Rates Cost Dealers Only Trifle More to Ship

Washington, Aug. 19.—Householders are being urged to vigorously rebel against any attempt on the part of dealers to unduly increase the price of commodities on account of the new freight rates about to be put into force through Interstate Commerce Commission.

"For instance," warns W. J. Lauck, economist for the railroad labor organization, "by no possible computation can the increased rates be made to justify an increase of 1 cent a pound in the price of meat, or 5 cents per pair in the price of a pair of shoes, or 10 cents in the price of a suit of clothes or one-fourth of one cent in price of a loaf of bread. Hence the forces of government should be on guard to see that no unjustifiable burden is imposed on the people."

SHOWS ACTUAL INCREASES.

A statement by the Pennsylvania Railroad made public here says:

"Let us see what these figures (the new freight rates) mean to the household consumer who buys flour by the sack, eggs and oranges by the dozen, and butter by the pound.

"Most flour is shipped in carload lots. Taking the rate from Minneapolis to Philadelphia, the 40 per cent. increase will amount to 33 cents per barrel of 200 pounds. On a twenty-four pound sack of flour this will be just a trifle less than four cents. If the flour is shipped in less than carload lots the increase charge per twenty-four pounds would be seven cents.

"As a crate of eggs contains thirty dozen, the added freight charges would be about half a cent per dozen eggs, and in less than carload shipment, about two-thirds of a cent a dozen.

BUTTER ONLY 4 MILLS.

"The increased charges on butter per pound from Chicago to Philadelphia, when sent in carload lots, would be about four mills, and on less than carload lots less than five and one-half mills—in the one case a little less than and in the other a little more than half a cent a pound.

"Under the new rates, the increase for shipping potatoes from Southern New Jersey or Virginia points to Philadelphia would amount to 3.3 cents and 5.1 cents per bushel, respectively. The housekeeper in the larger cities who buys potatoes by the peck ought, therefore, not to be charged more than one cent additional for each peck purchased.

"On packing house products, such as ham, bacon, lard and canned meats, shipped from Chicago to Philadelphia in carload lots, after the advanced rates become effective the increased charges will be 1.7 mills on each pound, while in less than carload lots this will be 2.4 mills."

RAPID RETIREMENT OF LIBERTY BONDS

The U. S. Treasury is rapidly retiring Liberty and Victory Bonds, and its secret service staff has been instructed to keep on the trail of illegitimate and dishonest dealers in war securities. The public is warned to deal only with reliable banks when they wish to sell these bonds.

So far the U. S. Treasury has retired $1,059,000,000 of Liberty and Victory Bonds. The total of all issues, including the four Liberty and the Victory Bonds, was $20,632,000,000. There are now outstanding in Liberty and Victory Bonds a total of $19,573,618,000.

WHEAT PRICE JUMPS CENT IN 5 MINUTES

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 19.—The price of wheat for October delivery advanced from $2.65 to $2.66 in five minutes at the reopening of the wheat pit here. The wheat market is expected to remain quiet until the new crop. The fresh incoming wheat is of first-rate quality and 65 pounds to the bushel.

N. Y. Bank for Chinese

A Chinese bank will establish a New York branch after a delegation of financiers and merchants from China return home. They are in this country to study conditions, and include Li Yuk Tong, managing director of Bank of Canton, Ltd., and Lo King Kee, leading merchant of China and his country's delegate to Red Cross conference at Geneva.

Cotton Market Opening

New York, Aug. 19.—The opening of the cotton market was the most active in a long time and it was attended by declines ranging from 28 to 57 points in all positions except July, which was unchanged. Liquidation of a general character occurred, particularly in October, which was sold heavily by Wall Street and up-town interests. Rallies after the call of about 20 points were not sustained and at the end of twenty minutes the market was heavy at a net loss of about 50 points. Opening prices were: Oct. 28.60; Dec. 27.55; Jan. 26.75; March 26.55; May 26.45; July 26.50.

COTTON GOODS BEING FORCED ON MARKET

Liquidation of cotton goods is becoming more general, owing to credit restrictions, and prices have declined on an average of about 5 per cent. within a week or so. This forcing of goods on the market is likely to result in keen competition and still lower prices. The Boston News Bureau says there has already been a considerable recession in print cloths from the record levels of the late Spring and early Summer, due more to the offerings by "second hands"—often speculative in character—than to concessions by mills. The recent range may be suggested by the following quotations on representative grades.

	32 in. 64x60 6.50 yds.	38½ in. 64x60 5.35 yds.	39 in. 68x72 4.75 yds.

July 1	18¾	20½	21
June 1	20½	23	24
January 1	18½	22	26

Measured in pound values, prices have declined about 33 per cent. from the early June level.

FRANCE SEEKING BILLIONS HERE

Plans to Raise Staggering Loan, According to Official Just Arrived From Europe

New York, Aug. 19.—A loan running into billions of dollars will be floated by the French government in this country in the near future, according to announcement by Jean Parmentier, a secretary of the Minister of Finance of France. He arrived here a few days ago. The amount of the loan will depend upon the willingness of the public to invest.

Part of this loan the French government plans to use to take up its share of the huge Anglo-French loan of $250,000,000. Only $100,000,000 of these bonds remain, the French government having bought up $90,000,000 worth on the open market. As a sign of good faith France will soon make a large shipment of gold to the United States.

Parmentier declared he would make it his duty to show the people of this country that France was financially sound and would pay all of its debts.

RHODE ISLAND ASKS U. S. PARCEL POST MILK ROUTE

Providence, Aug. 19. — When the Danielson and Seaview lines of the Rhode Island Company are discontinued after September 6, in accordance with the reorganization plan of the trolley system, Postmaster Edward F. Carroll will ask authority of the United States Postoffice Department at Washington to establish motor vehicle routes in those sections to enable farmers to ship their milk into the city, it was announced.

Carroll will confer Friday with Fred C. Warner, southern district manager of the New England Milk Producers' Association, to determine the practicability of such a scheme. Approximately 7,000 quarts of milk day come into the city from farmers along the two trolley lines.

Germany's Mexican Trade

Enrique A. Gonzales, consul-general for Mexico to Hamburg, says: "Germany is exporting to Mexico at rate of about 20,000,000 marks a month, with steady increase. Products consist of optical and electrical goods, toys and chemicals. Exports in 1919 were about 1,000,000 marks a month. Mexico is exporting a few fibers to Germanay. Personally, I am very optimistic over the future of Germany."

County and City Loans

Pittsfield, Mass., has awarded a temporary loan of $100,000, in anticipation of revenue, dated August 18 and payable December 17, 1920, to Old Colony Trust Co. at 5.99 per cent. plus $1.25 premium.

Manchester, N. H., has awarded $350,000 of school and equipment bonds, dated August 2, and maturing $17,500 on August 1 in each of years 1922 to 1939 inclusive, to Merrill, Oldham & Co. at 98.11.

Bids will be received until noon, August 30, for $100,000 Essex county notes, running one year from September 1, 1921.

Foreign Exchange

French Francs $7.75 per hundred, German Marks $2.65 per hundred, Italian Lire $6.50 per hundred, Austran Kronen $9.00 per thousand. Currency, spot delivery. Buying foreign monies outright is our advice to the conservative investor. This is the safest way that we know of to take advantage of opportunities offered in the Foreign Money Exchange.

German and Austrian Municipal Bonds

The bonds of the cities mentioned below, aside from their powers of taxation, generally known in fee, harbor works, water works, street railways, light and power plants, etc., which are income producing, the value of which is largely exceeded by the funded debt of the cities, are usually amortized by means of sinking funds of varying percentages, which may be increased at the option of the municipal authorities. These bonds have always paid their interest promptly and in our opinion offer an unusual investment opportunity and can be liquidated at any time at the prevailing market prices.

WAR BRIDES TO HAVE SCHOOL

Manchester Opens Classes for Their Exclusive Use Next Month

Manchester, N. H., Aug. 19.—A school for the war brides of the boys of the A. E. F., brought home from France, Belgium and elsewhere, will be opened under the auspices of the Public School Department at the beginning of the school year next month.

The only qualifications for entrance to the school is that one must be a bona fide war bride. No entrance fee will be required. The school will be open every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening. It will be entirely separate from the regular evening school classes.

English and other subjects will be taught. One of the main reasons for opening the war brides' school, however, is to eliminate the homesickness now prevailing among so many of the girls brought to this country from abroad as wives of the doughboys.

In order to make the war brides feel more at home and enable them to become accustomed to American ways and manners everything possible will be done at the school session to entertain and instruct them.

GETS 'PEP' FROM GOAT GLAND

Chicago Chancellor, Aged Seventy-one, Says He Is New Man After Operation

Chicago, Aug. 19.—"I feel like a youth again. I'm a new man," said J. J. Tobias, chancellor of the Chicago Law School, as he described the benefits received from the interstitial gland operation performed on him.

Chancellor Tobias is one of thirty-four persons who have undergone goat gland operations here in the past six weeks. The operations were performed by Dr. J. R. Brinkley of Milford, Kan.

In his own words Chancellor Tobias, who is seventy-one years old, was "played out five months ago." Years of teaching had reduced his vitality. Two attacks of influenza had added to his ailments. Arterial congestion of the brain, vertigo and high blood pressure set in. Physicians told him he was in danger of death.

"Now I feel twenty-five years younger. I am a new man, full of pep, strong, healthy, ready to go on with my work," he states. "I was ill, old and played out, but the operation has revivified me."

"After teaching school for twenty-five years in the Chicago Law School I was played out. I suffered headaches. My eyesight was failing. There was a constant ringing in my ears. Dizziness came. Mentally and physically I was unable to go on with my work. I was an old man. Then I heard of Dr. Brinkley.

"Four days after the operation the headaches had disappeared, and my sight was greatly improved. Seven days afterward I left the hospital, a new man."

Where You Sleep

It Makes a Difference

The picture at the top of this page helps to explain why some of us are in favor of a Peace League that would mean more war, and some against it.

Some of us went to Europe to sleep in Buckingham Palace. Some went as soldiers to sleep in the trenches, some of them to remain in the soil.

WHERE YOU SLEEP influences your thought when you wake up.

You who slept in Buckingham Palace, or at the Ritz-Carlton, and heard a gentle voice say, at a comfortably late hour, "Your bath is ready," carry back pleasant recollections of Europe and of war. Polished silver and cut glass on your breakfast tray, polished statesmen bowing before you, leave a pleasant impression, and he who sleeps in Buckingham Palace or in the Ritz-Carlton bed has no serious objection to repeating his experiment.

It isn't so with the man that slept in the trenches, who heard the rats squeak, who heard nothing about "Your bath is ready."

The man who slept in the trenches is as willing now as ever to do his duty. But he isn't anxious for another trip to that sleeping place across the ocean. He is not anxious for the Peace League summons saying: "We need you men." He knows that under the Peace League the call might come from France, from Serbia, from Armenia, Persia, Mesopotamia, Egypt or Poland. No matter whence it might come, it would be an invitation to sleep in the trench.

It is difficult for the man whose bed was in Buckingham Palace or at the Ritz-Carlton to know just exactly the feelings of the man who slept in the trench. He is surprised that the trench sleeper is not full of enthusiasm at the thought of another chance to go abroad and sleep.

The man who slept in the trench, on the other hand, cannot understand the mental attitude of him who slept in the palace or the Ritz. He wonders at the light-heartedness with which American men and money are promised to Europe whenever they may be wanted.

He was satisfied, before, to go to his trench bed, for he had been told that he was defending his own country. He will not be satisfied to go to that bed again, in the mud of the trench, merely because somebody outside of his country may choose to send for him.

Those that slept in the trenches are more numerous than those that slept in the Ritz-Carlton or at Buckingham Palace. And they will defeat the Peace League, so far as this country is concerned, in November next.

Friendly Warning to the Pullman Company

Copyright, 1920, Star Company.

Recently, while the railroads were under control of Government, conductors of the Pullman cars formed an organization affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. It included sensible details, mutual benefit arrangements, insurance and others. Under Government management there would be no objection to any American citizen, PRESIDENT of a Pullman company or CONDUCTOR of a Pullman car, entering any organization he chose, as long as he attended to his business and did not interfere with others.

But with withdrawal of Government management and the resumption of private ownership the situation changes. As yet the Pullman company has taken no action against the organization of its conductors, men upon whom it relies primarily for the management and the good reputation of its property.

But inquiries have been made of certain Pullman car conductors as to whether or not they intend "to remain with the new organization." This is a gentle hint as follows: "Are you going to depend on an organization that your company doesn't like, or will you depend, as in old days, on your company, and take with grateful thanks what it gives?"

This is friendly warning to the Pullman company to let its conductors have their organization if they want it. The Pullman company should be content to take its profits, mind its business, and allow its conductors to take their salaries, which are small enough, and attend to their business.

Locomotive engineers of the United States are among the best class of American citizens, they are mechanics proud of their work, their ability, their jobs. They have been PROUD AMERICANS, because they have been first-class workmen and have made the railroads and others acknowledge that they WERE first-class workmen.

For years they have been the most powerful union in the United States, and everybody knows that they have been the best workers in the United States.

Pullman car conductors are few in number; they cannot have an organization that would influence politics, or make much difference to the circulation of newspapers, but they are a class of citizens, men upon whom responsibility rests, and should be treated as dignified servants of the public, not as humble servants of a private corporation.

The Pullman company has usually shown intelligence in managing. It was established by an able man, George M. Pullman, a benefactor of this country and of the whole world. He began as a humble carpenter and had respect for those that work hard to make their living.

Pullman was the first conductor of his first Pullman car. He made up the beds, smoothed down the sheets, stood at the steps selling tickets. He told this writer how one day he was selling tickets on his one Pullman car running from Chicago to Springfield, the capital of Illinois. In those days men did not have an entire stateroom to themselves. Pullman sold two tickets for each berth, four men to a section. Americans lived then more humbly. He sold half of a lower berth to one man and the other half to a second man. The second man came out and said, "Put me somewhere's else; I can't sleep in that berth." "Why?" asked Pullman. "That other man is all doubled up in the berth and takes up the whole thing."

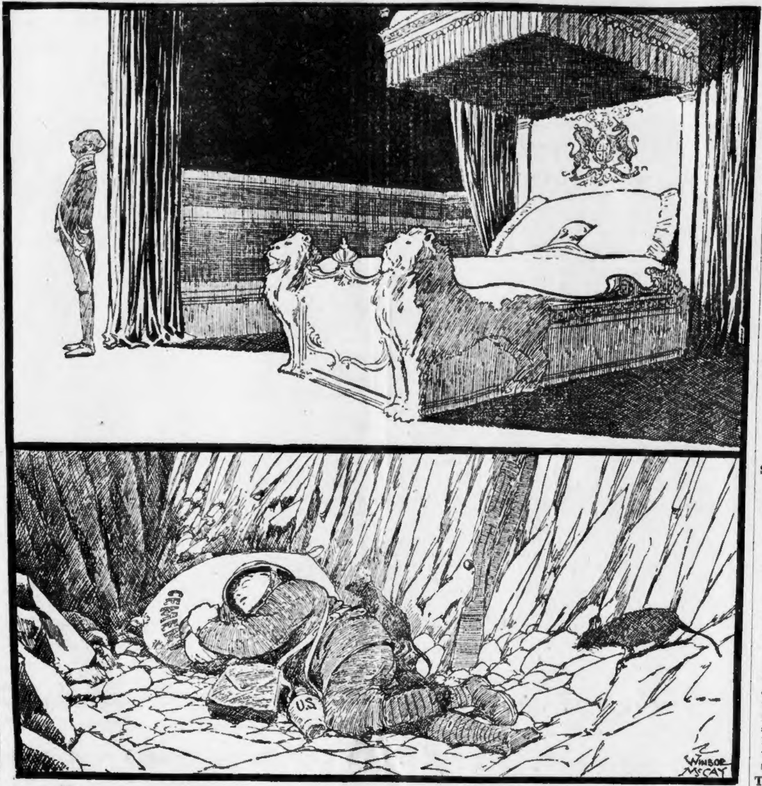
"I went in," said Pullman, "to make the other man move over to his side of the berth. I found a good-natured, tall young giant doubled up in there, AND THAT WAS THE FIRST TIME I EVER SAW ABRAHAM LINCOLN. He bought the first half of the berth."

If Pullman were here, he would say, "A Pullman car conductor has hard, responsible work and must be a first-class man."

It is certain if old Lincoln, who lay doubled up in half of one berth of the first Pullman, could come back, he would be in favor of treating conductors of the Pullman cars as first-class citizens, with a right to do as they please with themselves, with their own organization and their own plans.

Not Twin Beds

Copyright 1920., by Star Company.



These are not twin beds, but there is an American in each, and both are asleep in Europe. One lies in a trench, one in Buckingham Palace. The man of the trench is NOT in favor of the Peace League and more war.

More Truth Than Poetry

Cheated

By S. E. KISER

LAST night he showed me through his place—
The man whom I have envied much;
Luck long has been in his embrace;
Gain seems to grow beneath his touch.
His house is big; the halls are wide;
His lawns exhibit constant care;
But something he has been denied,
For not a child was playing there.

THROUGH many spacious rooms he led,
And reached his sacred "den" at last,
Where furry skins were thickly spread,
His trophies won in seasons past.
In heaps his curios were piled,
His pipes were good, his books were rare,
But no inquiring, eager child
Had ever slyly ventured there.

HE showed me manuscripts and prints
For which a fortune had been paid,
And precious coins from ancient mints,
And tapestries for princes made.
He spoke about his travels, too;
He had been almost everywhere;
His home-ties, he complained, were few;
No child had ever charmed him there.

A DOG came in and laid its head
With friendly trust across his knee;
"This is my closest chum," he said;
"The one that has full faith in me."
I'll envy him no more because
His gains are large, his treasures rare;
How incomplete his mansion was!
No child claimed fond protection there.

TIME TO THINK IT OVER

One nice thing about a Summer resort engagement is that the girl's father usually is so far away that she can't insist on having you ask for her immediately.

Who Was Fatal Germ Guest?

WHO was the fashionable guest who came to Mrs. Case's dinner and left behind her germs of a malignant disease that cost two lives and made thirty-nine society women dangerously ill? Is there a "Typhoid Mary" in Cleveland? These are the questions which are puzzling health authorities in the Ohio city, where a search has been begun for the person whose presence in a room may mean death and disaster for scores of innocent merrymakers.

Read the story of the menace which hangs over Cleveland society in the Magazine Section of Sunday's Boston Sunday Advertiser.

How many former husbands should a lady invite to a dinner party—particularly a wedding dinner? This may be one of the questions of social etiquette with which matrons of the near future will have to cope if one may take a recent adventure of beautiful Phyllis Hare Holzman of Philadelphia as an omen.

Mrs. Holzman found herself in somewhat of a dilemma when husband No. 1 sat down among the guests gathered to celebrate her second nuptials. The situation contained all the elements of a French farce. Read about it in Sunday's Boston Sunday Advertiser.

The Boston Sunday Advertiser devotes a page of its Magazine Section this week to a review of a recent publication of Sir James George Frazer, the most noted anthropologist in Great Britain. Sir James has been making a study of the Bible, and of the times with which it deals, and the theories which he now puts forward are greatly at variance with the accounts of early days which Bible students have always accepted as "gospel truth."

Sir James declares, for instance, that Cain, the murderer, was not cursed by God for the death of Abel. A mark was placed upon him merely to protect him from his brother's ghost. He also asserts that the name "Cain" really means "Smith," and that the first slayer was the forefather of the huge family which bears that name today.

This extremely interesting article appears Sunday in the Magazine Section of the Boston Sunday Advertiser.

Ye TOWNE GOSSIP

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

By K. C. B.

SHE ADMITTED.
SHE COULDN'T cook.
BUT HE loved her so much.
HE DIDN'T care.
AND SO they were married.
AND KEPT house.
AND AFTER a while.
INSTEAD OF a sandwich.
AND A glass of milk.
AT HIS lunch downtown.
HE BEGAN to eat.
A REGULAR meal.
AND SHE was worried.
BECAUSE OF the loss.
OF HIS appetite.
AT THE evening meal.
AND SO she began.
TO LOOK around.
FOR THINGS he liked.
AND ALONG about then.
THE BOTH of them.
HAD DINNER one night.
AT OUR house.
AND WE had a dish.
OF MACARONI and cheese.
AND HE praised it a lot.
AND WAS served three times.
AND BEFORE she left.
SHE HAD my wife.
TELL HER how to make it.
AND THE very next night.
SHE MADE a mess.
AND IT swelled up so.
SHE WARMED it up.
FOR THE next three days.
AND HE loved her so much.
HE ATE it all.
AND MADE a wish.
SHE'D FORGET how to make it.
BUT TWO days later.
SHE HAD it again.
AND AN hour ago.
HE TELEPHONED me.
HE'D EATEN so much.
MACARONI AND cheese.
HE WAS breaking out.
WITH LITTLE white rings.
AND WOULDN'T we please.
ASK THEM up again.
AND HAVE something simple.
AND EASY to make.
AND HARD to spoil.
AND HE'D enthuse.
AND EAT a lot.
AND I said we would.
BUT WHATEVER it is.
SHE'LL MAKE him sick of that.
AND WHAT good will it do?

I THANK you.

WHAT DO YOU ASK LIFE TO GIVE YOU?

By Beatrice Fairfax

"I BARGAINED with life for a penny,
And Life would pay me no more,
However I begged at evening,
When I counted my scanty store.

"For Life is a just employer,
He gives you what you ask,
But once you have set the wages
Why, you must bear the task.

"I worked for a menial's hire,
Only to learn, dismayed,
That any wage I had asked of Life,
Life would have paid."

MONTHS ago I came across this poem—and for months I have been thinking about it. The author's name is unknown to me, but I want here and now to thank him (or her) for an exquisite expression of a wonderful truth, and a truth, moreover, which few of us have ever perceived or thought about.

Most of us whimper. Most of us talk of other people's luck and our own misfortune. There's an old proverb which says: "Where you are not—there are the pastures green."

Somewhere Else

And most of us believe this. Somewhere else there's a chance in the world. Somewhere there's opportunity. Eldorado is somewhere—but not here.

The facts we don't face are given us in the song I've quoted. We get from existence pretty much what we ask. If we work and feel the worth of our work, if we strive and are convinced that our striving deserves to be crowned with success—then, generally, our wage is paid.

Not for sitting back with folded hands and waiting for luck to waft something our way—not for consuming without producing—not for half-hearted effort are we paid. There's no use trying to sidestep effort and responsibility like that. We only get paid for what we do. And for that we only get paid what we ask.

They Are Yours

What you want, what you try for, what you are willing to struggle to attain are yours—for the working, not just for the "taking," as lazy souls hope.

You don't have to be satisfied at the bottom of the ladder. You don't need to be "the under dog." Think over this verse again. It has a message for each of us:

"I worked for a menial's hire,
Only to learn, dismayed,
That any wage I had asked of Life,
Life would have paid."

Stars and Stripes

If chewing gum signs are an indication of progress, America is many long strides ahead of the rest of the world.

The man who begins by expecting the Lord to provide usually ends by depending upon his relatives.

Don't blame Europe for not understanding our politics. We're none too expert on Europe's.

Friend Ibanez says the trouble with Mexico is that the people are militaristic and have too many weapons. The real trouble with Mexico is that the people there are Mexicans.

Shakespeare would have known better what's in a name if he had needed an endorser at the bank.

The difference between a statesman and a politician is that the statesman belongs to your party.

Too many of us are inclined to forget that our prejudices against others do not necessarily make them contemptible.

Even the man who gives up after his first serious defeat will, at present prices, try again when he is endeavoring to smoke a broken cigar.

Ponzi's career is another proof that experience comes high, and apparently is not transferable.

EXPLAINING INERTIA OF MOVING BODIES

By Garrett P. Serviss

THE problem of the cannon-ball fired backward from a gun mounted on a moving flat-car seems to have an irresistible fascination for many minds, and an equally great tendency to puzzle them.

The velocity imparted to the ball is assumed, in the problem, to be exactly equal to the velocity of the train carrying the cannon, but the two motions are directly opposite to one another in direction. The question is what becomes of the ball, i. e., in what direction, and how much, or how fast, does it move after leaving the muzzle of the gun?

Two Versions

Some correspondents say that because the breech of the gun is retreating at just the same velocity that the explosion imparts to the ball in the opposite direction, the ball will remain motionless at the bottom of the bore; others say that, since the ball has an impulse in one direction, and the gun, with the train, an equal impulse in the other direction, they must separate with a velocity equal to the sum of the two motions.

For instance, suppose both the velocities to be sixty miles per unit of time—hour, minute, or what you like. Then, according to the first set of correspondents, sixty miles' backward velocity of the gun would cancel the sixty miles forward velocity of the ball, and the latter would never start at all. But others see the matter in precisely an opposite light, and affirm with great confidence that ball and cannon would fly apart, one going one way and the other the other with a velocity of 60 plus 60, or 120 miles.

A Concrete Illustration

Now if the observer could see through the side of the gun before it was fired he would perceive the projectile resting there on the powder and moving with the whole train at sixty miles velocity toward the right. When the gun was fired he would see the projectile pass outward through the bore at a velocity of sixty miles, just as if it had been suddenly deprived of its share of the train's motion, or as if some invisible hand had grasped it and held it fast and he would see the train go on without it.

If the ball were fired toward the right it would leave the train behind at the rate of sixty miles and would travel over the ground at 120 miles.

To the Editor

All a Gamble

Editor Boston American:

Loot of the people, sobs for those who have sinned and took a flyer in a gamble—knowing in their hearts it was a gamble, for the whole world is a Monte Carlo. While they win all is well. The silver lining is found, and their sins are not found out, but with the closing of the golden gates, torn from them are their silver linings, and they sit in fear of thoughts of what is to come. A loophole is opened to them; they flock to the seats of the mighty with their scraps of paper in their hands, begging for their gold with piteous tales, when again they would place the same gold on the red or the black if they thought they would be the winners. enough of sob stuff. Men and women are not children. They know what is right and what is bad. And possibly Ponzi would have paid up, who knows?

Family Matchmakers

A new profession, though not a permanent one, has grown out of the after-effects of the war in Armenia, Syria, and Palestine, according to the latest reports from Near East Relief workers in these countries. Family matching is the name given to it, and the relief workers who engage in it are known as family matchmakers, without the strictly sentimental significance attaching to the word that it usually has. It is their business to get together the remnants of families still remaining wherever it can possibly be accomplished, so that family life in these stricken lands may be saved from total extinction. This is a vast task in the Near East at present.
